"Big Barbara to Lil Barbara: I'll love you forever!"

In Loving Memory of Our Great-Aunt

Although we may not have shared a lifetime of memories together,
you were still a part of our family,
a part of our story, forever.

Sometimes love doesn't need many words,
or years of being side by side.

It simply comes from knowing you were family, and that you mattered.

Today, we say goodbye with love and keep you in our hearts

May you rest peacefully, Auntie,
and may your memory never depart.

You will be missed,
you will be remembered,
and you will always have a place within our family and in our hearts.
Forever in Our Hearts,

Your Great-Nieces & Nephews

Special Acknowledgment

Keith would like to publicly express his heartfelt gratitude to Antwann "Tone" Smith, a true brother and friend, for the unconditional love, care, and support he so generously gave to "Mommy." Your presence, kindness, and unwavering support will always be deeply appreciated and remembered.

I love you, Brother. Big Barbara loves you forever Lil Barbara

PASTOR KENNETH MORGAN, EULOGIST
EVANGELIST STACY SMITH, OFFICIANT

Barbara Smith, affectionately known as "Lil Barbara," was born on July 26, 1943, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late Stanley Morgan Sr. and Maude Morgan. She peacefully transitioned from this life on Sunday, August 16, 2026.

Raised in Philadelphia, Barbara developed the strength, resilience, and warm spirit that would remain with her throughout her life. She was educated in the Philadelphia public school system and later began a dedicated career with Abrill Industries, where she worked faithfully until her retirement.

Barbara was known for her kind and generous heart. She never hesitated to lend a helping hand to someone in need, and her wonderful sense of humor could fill any room with laughter. Her unwavering faith in Jesus Christ guided her through life's joys and challenges, giving her the strength to overcome many obstacles with grace and determination.

One of Barbara's favorite sayings was, "God bless the child that has his own." These words reflected the independence, perseverance, and strong work ethic by which she lived.

Barbara found great joy in listening to oldies music and singing along to the songs she loved. Music filled her heart with comfort and happiness while bringing back many treasured memories. She also enjoyed watching her favorite game shows and spending time on the telephone with her dear sister, Sissy, as well as with her children and friends.

Family was at the center of Barbara's life. She treasured the time she shared with her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and her extended family. She cherished her lifelong friendships with her childhood friends, "Big" Barbara Riley and Betty Hayes who become family; she shared a loving bond with her devoted companion, Titus Patton; and was grateful for the care, kindness, and support shown by Tasheia Townsend and her daughter, Dajjah Ramson."

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, Stanley Morgan Sr. and Maude Morgan; her devoted brother-in-law, Alozo Stewart; her beloved first granddaughter, Sheree Jones; and her brother, Stanley Morgan Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving children, Raymond Morgan, Lorraine Morgan, Darren Morgan and his wife, Denise Childs-Morgan, Kenneth Morgan and his wife, Cathleen Morgan, and her beloved son, Keith Morgan; her adored grandchildren, Aaron Henderson, Hakeem Gordy, Ashlee Morgan, Lateefa Chisholm, Numiriah Wilson, Caelyn Sheree Price-Morgan, Kenneth Morgan Jr., and Darren Morgan Jr.; and her precious great-grandchildren, Shareef Jones, Faith Carr, A'Myree Richardson, Taleyah Gordy, Teyanna Gordy, and Egypt Williams.

Barbara is also survived by her beloved sister, Elizabeth Stewart, the guiding matriarch of the family, who continues to carry forward the strength, love, and legacy of their generation. She also leaves a host of nieces and nephews; the extended children she embraced as her own; and many other relatives, loved ones, and lifelong friends.

Barbara's love, laughter, faith, and strength touched the lives of all who knew her. Her legacy of kindness, perseverance, and devotion to family will continue to live in the hearts of those she leaves behind. Although she will be deeply missed, her memory will forever be cherished, and her spirit will remain an enduring source of love and inspiration.

Mommy, you will be truly missed.

Raymond, Lorraine, Darren, Kenneth and Keith.

"Well done, good and faithful servant." -Matthew 25:23

May Barbara Smith rest in eternal peace. She will never be forgotten.

I will always love you, Grandma,
and I'll carry your love wherever I go.
Thank you for always having my back,
for loving me when I needed it most,
and for being there when the world felt cold

You were always there for me,
through the good times and the pain,
through every tear and every smile.
You believed in me when I doubted myself and stood beside me when I felt alone.
Your love was a place I could always return to a place that felt like home.

Grandma, I hope you always knew how much I tried to be there for you too.
I wanted to take care of you,
to make you smile,
and to bring you happiness even if it was only for a little while.

Sometimes I wish I could call you just to hear your voice again.
Sometimes I wish I could hug you and tell you how much I love you one more time.

I hope you know that your love changed me. Your strength helped shape me.
Your prayers protected me.
You weren't just my grandma
you were my protector,
my supporter,
my safe place,
the one who always had my back.

And even though you're no longer here
for me to hold your hand,
your love is still holding mine.

I'll carry you in my heart
through every road I travel,
through every battle I face,
and through every blessing that comes my way.

When I smile,
I'll remember your smile.
When I love,
I'll remember how you loved me.
When I stand strong,
I'll remember the strength you gave me.

I tried to take care of you and make you happy while I could,
but the truth is, Grandma,
you spent your life taking care of me.

And for that,
I will forever be grateful.

I love you more than words can explain.
I miss you more than tears can show.
But I know the love we shared will never die

So until the day we meet again, rest peacefully, Grandma.

You had my back here on Earth,
and I know your love will continue to watch over me from Heaven.

I will always love you, Grandma.
Thank you for having my back.

Thank you for loving me.
Thank you for being you.

Until we meet again...
I love you forever.

With Love Always

Your Grandson - Aaron Henderson
