

Grandma

I said a prayer for you to thank the Lord above for blessing me with Lifetime
I thanked God for the caring you've shown me through the years for the closeness we've enjoyed in time of laughter and of tears and so, I thank you from the heart for all you've done for me And I bless the Lord for giving me the best Grandmother there could be.

Family

We push and pull, never letting each other farther away then necessary needing each other like our lungs need air.
There is craziness,
There are battlegrounds where lines are drawn.
Yet we always seem to be on the same side.
Our arms linked, connected not just through name, but a much deeper seed that we all have taken shape and bloomed from.
We are family!

In Loving Memory

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me but let me go!

Acknowledgments

Family isn't defined only by last names or by blood.
It's defined by commitment and by love.
It means showing up when they need it most.
We would like to thank all of you for the love and support during this difficult time.

Reflections

Sarah Jane Rose was born on November 7, 1935 in Richmond County, NC, to the late James Rose and Lucille Stevenson. She gained her wings on July 30, 2022.

Sarah received her education at Capitol Highway High school in NC. After highschool she attended beauty school in Charlotte, NC. Then she met and later married Ernest Stewart. No Tears In Heaven

There are no tears in Heaven nor grief of any kind I leave this final teardrop to those I've left behind.
 Though absent from the body
 I'm present with the Lord
 The joy of my salvation is now my full reward.
