All Butch's many Friends and Family

Oh, Great Spirit, whose voice I hear in-the 'winds and whose breath gives life to all the world, hear me.

I come before you, one of your many children.
I am weak and small. I need your strength and wisdom.

Let me walk in beauty and make my eyes ever,

behold the red and purple sunset;
my ears sharp so I may hear your voice.

Make me wise, so I may learn the things you have taught my people,

the lessons you have hidden under every rock and leaf.

I seek strength, not to be superior to my brothers,
but to be able to fight my greatest enemy--myself.

Make me ever ready to come to you with
clean hands and straight eyes, so whenever life fades,
like the fading sunset, my spirit will come
to you without shame.
