God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

OBITUARY

Mr. Marion Edward Hall, Jr., the son of Marion Edward. Hall, Sr. and the late, Helen P. Hall, was born June 19, 1963 in Winston-Salem, NC.

He received his formal education in the Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County School System and graduated from RJ Reynolds High School in the Class of 1982.

Quite a social butterfly with the biggest heart, while others may give the shirt off their back, he would give the watch off his arm. When not watching his favorite Pittsburg Steelers, he enjoyed fishing, traveling, singing; and listening to jazz. He was employed as a machine operator by ITG Brands in Greensboro, NC.

Those who preceded him in death include his mother, Helen P. Hall and brother, Darvez L. Hall, Sr.

Remaining to cherish his memory and legacy are his: son, Marion Edward Hall III; father, Marion Edward Hall, Sr.; sisters, Theresa Bell and Ann Graham (Trevor) both of Raleigh, NC; aunts, Florence Brown of California and Priscilla Porter of Rockingham, NC; uncles, George Clement of Winston-Salem, NC and Jimmy Parker of Baltimore, MD; nieces: Takeya Brannon, and Lucy Graham both of Winston-Salem, NC, Ariah Graham and Malkah Bell both of Raleigh, NC; nephews: Trevor "TJ" Graham (Tyler) of Raleigh, NC and Darvez L. Hall, Jr. of Winston-Salem, NC; great-niece, McKenzie Graham-Wilson of Winston-Salem, NC; great-nephews, Camden L. Graham-Wilson and Carson Graham-Wilson of Winston-Salem, NC, Trevor "Ian" Graham of Raleigh, NC, and Grayson and Elijah Hall of Winston-Salem, NC; Beverly Eaton, fiancée and her devoted family; and a host of relatives and friends.
