Obituary

Mrs. Belinda Lewis, loving mother, wife, and grandmother, passed away peacefully on Thursday, May 8, 2025, from Baptist Health Center in Jackson, Mississippi at the age of sixty-three.

Belinda was born on November 23, 1961, to Prentis Moore and Josephine Reed. She graduated from Beach Channel High School in 1979. She attended Baruch College for two years. She later went to Monroe Business Institute. Belinda worked at LNA Advertisement Company and New York Hospital in Manhattan. She married Savalus Lee Lewis, August 17, 1990 in Bronx, New York.

Belinda was a cherished member of our family. She retired from Neshoba General Hospital where she worked as Medical Record Associate. Belinda was preceded in death by her father, Prentis Moore, her brother, Ferdez Moore and her cousin, Anne Thomas.

Belinda Lewis is survived by her husband, Savalus Lee Lewis, her mother, Mrs. Josephine Moore, two children, Corey (Maxine) Lewis and Tiffany Lewis both of Bronx, New York, three grandchildren, Quincey Lewis, Kori Lewis, and Taylor Lewis all of Bronx, New York, one brother, Christopher (Marcia) Moore of Far Rockaway, New York; and her sister, LaKonya Moore of Philadelphia, Mississippi.

She also leaves to cherish her memories, her in laws, Esther Powell, Barbara (Harold) Wheeler, Sherry (Cesar) Bailey, Gary (Annise), Stanley (Denise) Bailey, Tony (Sheila) Bailey, Michael (Patricia) Lewis, Keisha Moore, Aunt Barbara Reed, Uncle Teddy Thomas, cousins, Jerry, Petey, Craig, Kendra, Michael, Penny, Tony, Cynthia, Bo, Helen, Robin, best friend, Guilinda (Dave) Gonzalez, her six godsons, Yvette Smith, Carmen Ghyll, a host of nieces, nephews, and her friends she worked with at Neshoba General Hospital.
