Help me Lord to hear Thy will,
To be at peace, to be quite still,
To listen quietly for Thy voice,
To know there is no need for choice:
For everything is in Thy hand
And I am happy there to stand.

Teach me Lord to do Thy will,
In steadfast ways to work until
The job is done: make me take heed –
To be obedient's all I need.
For everything is in Thy hand
And I am happy there to stand.

Thy will be done. I see at last
There is no future, there's no past:
The present fills infinity,
I stand with God, at one with Thee!
Salvation's Life, Truth, Love You bring!
I am so happy – here! Oh sing!

Prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of Hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing,
that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
Malachi 3:10 prove

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Enable us to know, as in heaven, so on earth, God is omnipotent, supreme S&H 17:1-3

Her Life Story

On July 20, 2022 God called upon Delores Sherlock Henry to come home. Delores Henry was born May 17, 1938 to Ellison Dingle Sr. and Lillian Richburg-Dingle. She was the oldest of five children all whom proceeded her in death; Ellison L. Dingle Jr. , Lorraine Dundee, Yvonne Lambright and Geneva Heath. Everyone who new Delores called her Dee or Dee-Dee, those who were close to her. Delores attended the Philadelphia public school system and graduated from William Penn high school. After high school, Delores then obtained employment for City of Philadelphia as a Clerk for some time at the age of 18. During that time, she met and fell in love with Earl Henry Senior, also known as Noonie. At 19 years of age , she married Earl Henry Sr. and through their union, she gave birth to three wonderful children; Andrea Andrews, Earl Raheem Henry Jr, and Victor Kennan Henry. Her first husband proceeded her in death.

Several years later, Delores met and married David S Reed. Through that union, they gave birth to two wonderful children, Tene' Reed & David S Reed Jr. Delores was a stay at home wife during that time. Several years after having Tene', she became employed in the Corporate world as an EXECUTIVE Secretary at the Highly reknown Leading Communications Company, AT&T. She was employed for 20 years at AT&T & was able to retire from that job. She gained close friends & companions throughout her work life as well. Delores was social at work but got the job done. She respected her position at AT&T to the highest. As she was the pinpoint person you'd see when you'd get off the elevator on the 32nd floor at the Famous Clothes Pin building located at 1500 Market St in Center City Philadelphia. Delores loved her job and providing for her family. Delores was strick but stood strong in all of her life convictions and experiences & had many stories to tell her close friends & family. Delores was also known to be kind when you were kind to her. Her second husband proceeded her in death as well.

Delores enjoyed family gatherings and holidays. She always wanted family to be together to experience good times, laughter & the importance of relationships with others. She also enjoyed traveling around the states, especially to Baltimore, Maryland where a vast amount of her cousins lived as they enjoyed cookouts & gatherings quite often & she took her kids & invited others too. Delores lived in Maryland for couple years with her closest cousin more like a sister, the late Juanita Stewart along with Juanita's daughter Tammy Talley whom the Henry family still reaches out to. The late Juanita Stewart had a large family in Maryland and Delores fit rite in and enjoyed all the times spent down their with other relatives too. In Maryland and in Philadelphia, Delores was the life of the party & family gatherings and Family Reunions. She loved old school & R&B music and dancing was her joy as well; couldn't get her off the dance floor until the music stopped. Delores loved going back and forth to Maryland once she returned to Philadelphia.

Delores also spent time at all of her siblings homes as well as they returned the gesture at her home on the 1100 Block of Ruby st in SouthWest Philadelphia, where she resided for over 4O plus years. The neighbors acknowledged Delores as the seamstress, as she was known to sew patterns & alter clothes for adults/ children on the block she resided on or for a family if needed. Delores became close friends with the Caldwell Family who lived across the street. The Caldwells were more like family then friends as Delores gave the honors to Dorothy Caldwell aka "Mrs Ann" of being the God Mother to Tene' her youngest daughter.. There friendship was special and she enjoyed being connected to the Caldwells family.

Delores was also an avid book reader. She had loads of novels and donated them back to the stores when she was finished or past them along to others. Delores was also know to wear the finer clothes & enjoyed dressing up for work or for outings in the town with family, friends or her companion. Delores loved shopping at Major retail clothing stores, but became an exclusive shopper in thrift stores such as the highly known Salvation Army on 23rd Market St in Philadelphia where now there is a memorial. Delores took her daughter Tene & David many of times to the thrift stores as well. Delores could find a bargain at many thrift stores in & out the city of Philadelphia and the items were classy just like she was. Delores traveled around vacationed & went on cruises experiencing good times during her time on this earth with friends, family & co-workers.

Delores was extremely proud of all her grandchildren's accomplishments & goals; obtaining higher education , being a care giver to her at one point in her life, employment, Armed Forces, and a Virtuoso Musician. She dearly loved them all and was happy they helped her when they did.

Delores Henry leaves behind all five of her children who had their own families. Her grandchild Habibya Adams-Ly (proceeded in her death) Other grandchildren; Adam K. Henry, Indya Tene Henry, Richard Henry, Kenan T. Henry, Alem Ballard, Clowye Smith, Desean Reed, Nykya Mines, Ameyia Mines & host of other grandchildren & great grandchildren as well.

Sorrowfully, THE FAMILY

Let everything you do be done in love.
