Gods Will

Veronica Doggett-Perry was born July 31, 1963 (Baltimore Maryland) Veronica was called home by the lord and departed this earthly life July 25, 2023.

The Blossoming Life

Veronica was born and celebrated "Veronica Doggett" (affectionately known as Ronnie) entered into this world to her proud parents Jacob Thomas and Shirley Brayboy. The joy of Veronica's birth highlighted glimmers of love. Her beautiful shining smile and vibrant spirit captured the hearts of her grandparents, aunts and uncles; an immediate family bond was formed.

Her Future

Veronica attended Baltimore City public schools. Her instantaneous gift of learning allowed her to excel through educational levels. She knew the definition of hard work and retired from public services.

Her Love

Veronica in a million chances as a thriving high school student, Veronica met her highschool sweetheart. This was someone who quickly was defined as her soulmate "Ronald Lee Perry Jr." Veronica's journey was transformed. They later married under holy matrimony. The relationship blossomed for over 45 years.

Her Blessing Continuation

From this union a new generation of love was created: three children Nicole, Tammy and Ronald Perry. Veronica loved her children unconditionally, she shared a special bond with each of them. Built from the foundation of love Veronica and Ronald Perry was happily blessed with seven phenomenal grandchildren. Veronica welcomed her new role in life as a proud and profoundly joyous grandmother. She was elated for every new advancement that her grandchildren took in life. Her greatest achievement was watching them grow up and excel. From their first footsteps in life, sharing stories, birthday parties, driving privileges, cooking dinner, high school graduations, groundbreaking accomplishments to a moment in time to witness her grandchildren Gary and Tagia graduate from college, and her first grandchild Anthony to have graduated from Trade School. Veronica's spirit overflowed with love for each of them. Veronica's children and grandchildren were her world; she would do anything to see them happy.

The Beginning

Veronica the outspoken and adventurous beautiful young girl was inspired by reading books and listening to 70's music. Growing up in an extremely close family atmosphere, she was always surrounded by siblings, cousins, aunts and uncles; setting a distinctly great foundation for family values. Early in life Veronica was introduced to Christ. She was taught by her grandmother (late Shirlene Doggett) to pray. Inspirational teachings from her grandmother reinforced spiritual guidance with combined introductions to Sunday school classes, summer school bible revivals and other biblical teachings. These defining crafts would be an ultimate shield to help support Veronica prevail through life. Her love for cooking became a community's appreciation. She found great joy in watching her favorite television shows; Law and Order and Hung and The Restless. You could find her singing her most fond song "Let's Get It On", planning family outings and dinners, shopping and having her finger nails designed. Veronica mirrored values taught to her of not needing a special reason to celebrate; but to honor and love everyday in given life with family and friends. Veronica uncovered light no matter life's circumstances. She was eager to overcome any challenges to gain a brighter day.

Cherished Moments

Veronica and her mother shared an extraordinary bond. The first born, her mother's love was beyond measure. They enjoyed traveling, talking on the phone and watching investigative movies. Each of their hearts is empowered with God's favor and grace. This was an incredible shared mother and daughter love. Growing as the eldest child Veronica carefully lovingly embraced and protected each relationship with her siblings. Securely tailoring each greeting with a cuddly hug and ending each encounter with a gentle kiss topped with a cheerful "I Love you!" Her relationships with each of her nieces and nephews were extensions of her proud and heartfelt love.

Benediction

YOU NEVER SAID GOODBYE

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God Knew why.
A million times I needed you.
A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place that no one can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you,
the day God took you home.

Your Loving Children Nicole, Tammy and Ronald

FOR MY WIFE

Thank you for the endless love that will help me through each day
And thank you for the memories that will never fade away
Your the woman I loved and I was proud to be your husband
And every day in some small way I will celebrate your love as long as memories lost you will stay in my heart.

Your Loving Husband Ronald

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

We Think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain,
To walk and guide us through our lives,
Until we meet again.

Your Loving Grandchildren Tagia, Gary, James and Ra'Zyah

MISSING YOU SO MUCH DAUGHTER

You left us broken-hearted
Not knowing what to do
But now we find such comfort
In memories of you.

The legacy you left us
Was of happiness and love,
And that shines on forever
From the glorious skies above.
You brought joy and beauty
From the moment of your birth,
Now in heaven you're an angel
Just as you were on earth.
Your Loving Mother Shirley
