

In Loving Memory
JUSTIN L. SENOGLES

1979-2024

WHEN I'M GONE

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel
my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and only remember the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done.

Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way.

Remember I have fought some hard battles and won,
ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have
you sad for a day,

But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay,

And come in the shade of evening when the sun
paints the sky in the west.

Stand for a few moments beside me and remember
only my best.
