God's Garden

Written by Family Friend and Evangelist Lynette Mazes
God looked around His garden and found an empty space. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's Garden must be beautiful. He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering. He knew you were in pain. He knew you would not get well on this earth again. He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be Thine". It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

THE OBITUARY OF
David R. Bruner

It is with deep love and remembrance that we honor the life of David Rondell Bruner, a devoted father, cherished son, beloved brother, and loyal friend, who passed away on March 14, 2026, at the age of 56, surrounded by his family.

David was born to Maxine and Carl Bruner on October 26, 1969, in Detroit, Michigan, and raised in Southfield, Michigan, along with his brother Kevin Bruner and sister Carla Bruner, where he grew into a man known for his warmth and generous spirit. His parents instilled in him a deep sense of family, and he was blessed with the guidance and love of his grandparents, Jasper and Willie Mae Norton and Charlie and Louise Brown who served as wonderful role models throughout his life. He also treasured life-long bonds with his siblings Melanie Brewer, Carl Renee Bruner and Daryl Bruner.

From an early age, he showed talent and passion, particularly on the baseball field, where he shined as a standout player in both middle school and high school. An entrepreneur at heart, David built and operated two small businesses alongside his brother, Kevin.

Above all, David was a devoted father to his daughters, Alexandra and Olivia, whom he shared with his former wife, Michelle, and loved beyond measure. Their “daddy-daughter days” were among his greatest joys and were filled with laughter, love, and unforgettable memories that will be cherished forever.

He had a deep appreciation for music and its history, often sharing his knowledge and enthusiasm with those around him. He also had a love for classic cars, admiring their craftsmanship and timeless style.

David is preceded in death by his grandparents Jasper and Willie Mae Norton and Charlie and Louise Brown, his father Carl Bruner, and his brothers Carl Renee Bruner and Daryl Bruner. He leaves to cherish his memory his mother Maxine Bruner, daughters Alexandra and Olivia Bruner and their mother Michelle Bruner; his siblings Carla Worthy (husband, Jonathan Worthy), Kevin Bruner (wife, Melanie Bruner), Melanie Brewer, and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. He shared close and meaningful relationships with each of them, and their bonds remain a lasting part of his legacy.

David will be remembered as a good friend to all who knew him. His memory endures through his daughters, his family, and the many lives he touched.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
