

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;*
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies

Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over

Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Selinthia Ann Collins (lovingly known as "Lent") was born on April 11, 1977, to Sandra A. Collins and Walter Madaris.

Lent was the favorite child, as her brothers would say, but she was the youngest and the baby girl of the three. She loved shopping, dancing, and music. Especially reggae and old-school music. If and when she attended gatherings, she was always the life of the party, either cracking jokes or just showing everybody love. She always kept it real and did not candy-coat what she liked or didn't like. For the most part, she kept to herself, but if you were a family member, friend, etc., you could call her, and she would be there for you.

Taking care of people was always a passion for Lent, which is why she worked as a STNA for over 21 years before becoming a Registered Nurse on May 6, 2022. She was always a hard worker and always provided the best care she could to all her residents and patients.

Lent's greatest joy and gift in life was her one and only child, Cor'mari Collins, who was born on February 27, 2011. In true Selinthia fashion, that was an eventful night as well, but with the grace of God and the support of family, she persevered through the trials and tribulations.

Lent was preceded in death by her uncles, Curtis Collins and Earnest "Ernie" Collins.

Her loving memories will live in the hearts of her beloved daughter, Cor'mari Collins; her mother, Sandra Collins; her father, Walter Madaris; her brothers, Barry "Charlie" Collins, Delrico "Buddy" Collins (Latasha), Delmar Williams (honorary), Greg Lawrence, and Craig Lawrence; sisters, Regina "Toni" Madaris, Cynthia Madaris, and Rasheeda Attis; aunt, Jeanette; and uncles, Edward "Pokey" and Willie. She also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, other family members, and dear friends. Selenthia will be missed by all.

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
of happy memories
that I leave behind
When life is done.
