After the family settled in Ridgely MD Debbie attended St. Benedicts Catholic Church and raised her own children to attend and cultivated a personal relationship with Christ. She was a lifetime member of St. Benedicts

Deborah loved her family dearly and that love made a huge impact on each person in her life. Her laugh was contagious, and you could not help but to join. She always attended all of the children and grandchildren’s events, important life moments and birthday parties. She enjoyed taking road trips with family and friends, capturing every moment with a big smile we all loved. Her hobbies included playing cards with friends, shopping, long country road rides, swimming, and, going out to eat with family and friends. She loved her football, and the Dallas Cowboys was her favorite team “Go Cowboys.” She loved to watch movies, and her favorite was “Grease” and she knew all the words. The bond she had with her grandchildren was one of kind and she made sure they knew they were loved as individuals, and they all had a piece of her heart.
