To My Brother

Losing a brother is heartbreaking. It is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. Words are so feeble in moments like these. Life is so precious and death is such a thief. But his cherished memories live on like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May that love surround you now and bring you peace and comfort.

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me".
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived, while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again."

TRIBUTES

Dear Uncle Walter

To me you are more than an Uncle, you are truly a great friend. Someone I could pour my thoughts out to. Knowing you will cherish them to the end. You have made me laugh when I wanted to cry. You have made me stronger when I felt so weak that I could die. Whenever I'm upset, I know you're there with a shoulder to cry on. Whenever I face a problem and need some help, I knew you were the one I could rely on. You have always made me happy and made me smile. I hope you can truly see you are more than just a Uncle you are also a great friend to me.

Your niece, Florence Kimble

To An Amazing Brother-in-law

You gave no one a last farewell, nor never said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
A million times we will miss you, A million times we will cry.
In our hearts you will always hold a place in our hearts that no one else can else will fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God took you home.
We will meet with you again someday, I know in a better place.
I thank God he made you and I was able to be a part of your life while you were here on earth.

Loved beyond words, Missed beyond measure, Loved by many and missed by many many more.

Always & Forever in our Hearts.

Your Sister-in-law, Dianne
