

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you spoke the kindest word a friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, but just thought of us on that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you Very Much.

May God Bless each of you.

"The White Chariot" by Julie Johnson

During your journey on your final flight home.

White wings will carry you and you will be flown.

To the pearly gates of Heaven, where they will usher you in.

To the feet of your Lord, your Saviour, and your friend.

He will hold you in his arms and the angels will sing.

As another one of His children is delivered by white wings.

Life Reflections

Angelo Braboy was born on February 14, 2003, in Kansas City, MO, to Cliffon Dennis and Angel Braboy.

He was educated at Success Academy and worked at USG Warehousing. Angelo enjoyed watching football with his grandmother and spending time with family and friends. He shared a special bond with his childhood sweetheart, Kymbriel Hyter.

Angelo loved when people acknowledged his choice of fashion. He was also a protector of his family, whom he held close. He would always reassure them by saying, "Don't worry about it" or "I got you."

Angelo leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Cliffon Dennis and Angel Braboy; his co-mother, Tyneishia Sanders; eight siblings: Cassadee Dennis, Carsyn Dennis, CaNaylah Dennis, Casimir Dennis, Omauriontae Sanders, and Kameron Byrd; three grandparents: Lisa Dennis, Harold Monday, and Pearline Braboy; two uncles, Virgil and Lance Dennis; and three aunts, Detonya Childress, Rhonda Childress, and April Braboy. He is also survived by a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Angelo is preceded in death by his great-grandmother, Cleopatra Dennis; Willie Mae Childress; great-grandfather, Leroy Childress; and grandfather, Alfred Braboy.
