

Acknowledgements of Appreciation

He was a breath of Fresh air

Through all things he smiled, when others cried, he smiled, a comfort to all his smile made him tall.

He could overwhelm your heart the minute he arrived.

Never at a loss for words but could change the tone of any room he walked into with a smile on his face and that snap of his fingers what up everybody and the laughter would linger, a cup in his hand and a dip in his step Jason would always make you take a deep breath.

With love in his heart and a will to help all Jason was truly the biggest of all. With love in our hearts yet emptiness falls its time for Jason to take his ride home. Your family has gathered with friends all around to say our farewells and remember it all the love you gave we will sorely miss you will always be with us
