

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Cherrie Ann (Luck) McCoy was born on November 25, 1949, to the late Susie Mae Luck and Jessie Broadwaters in Cincinnati, OH. She grew up in downtown Cincinnati in the Laurel Homes, on Liberty and Linn Street. She was educated in the Cincinnati Public School system. She graduated from Courter Tech High School. As a young woman, she worked every holiday season at Shilto's as one of Santa's Helpers.

She was preceded in death by her beloved son, Michael Coats Sr., and her sister, Susie Jeanette Luck. She entered the Lord's Kingdom on June 22, 2024, at 74.

She was married to her first husband, William Coats Jr., for 28 years. She remarried in 1997 to Willie J. McCoy, and they were happily married for 26 years.

Cherrie retired from Sears, where she was an appliance salesperson for over 30 years. She was very successful and took great joy in her job. She was an avid sports fan and would answer the phone after a Bengals win with "Who Dey!" She liked to bowl, play softball, play cards, and thoroughly relished beating her children in "Jacks" when they were young. She was a true character, and how she loved dogs! She passed her love of dogs to her children, especially to her sons. She enjoyed watching cooking shows and YouTube, often trying out the recipes. She enjoyed music and dancing. Cherrie looked forward to attending the Cincinnati Music Festival every year with her mother (before she passed away), sister, daughter, and nieces. It was a real family affair! She loved to laugh, and that laugh will be missed by those who loved and cherished her. She was just a joy to be around.

Cherrie leaves Willie to cherish her memory, along with her daughter Tiawana (Tony), son William Coats III, stepdaughters Danielle Kalwary (Kyle) and Stephanie McCoy-McLin; grandchildren Camillia McCown, Eric McCown, Michael Coats Jr., Damyah Coats, Xavier McLin, and Chelsea Smith; great-grandchildren Michael Coats III and Xaia McLin; son-in-law Tony McCown, daughter-in-law Teresita Coats; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
