

Roses for Mom

If Roses grow in Heaven Lord, please pick a bunch for us. Place them in our Mother's arms and tell her they're from us. Tell her that we love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while. Because remembering her is easy, We do it every day, but there is an ache within our hearts that will never go away.

A Letter to My Cousin

My Dearest Cousin,
We were supposed to grow old together. Watch our grandkids grow up together outside playing ball. It hurts me to the core knowing that you're gone. Left us too soon but you were always filled with life. God called you home for a reason and who are we to question whether He's wrong or right? Family is not the one you're born into, it's the ones you're with when you go home. Your babies are our babies and you are not alone. as this is a hard pill to swallow, side effects of feeling rotten. I love you and I miss you, cousin. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten.
"Till we meet again"
From Dee-Dee's heart

Rev. James Eugene Thornton • Officiating

For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. 1 Thessalonians 4:14-15

Obituary

Tanya Nicole Slocum's sunrise was on November 3, 1973, in Cincinnati, Ohio to Sharon "Rena" Slocum and Jack, McDonald Clark, Jr.

Tanya was educated in the Cincinnati Public School System. She graduated from Robert A. Taft High School class of 1992.

In Tanya's pastime, she loved listening to her old-school R&B, and hip-hop music. One of her favorite songs was the percolator. When that song came on she would show you how to do the percolator. She could not wait to get up on the dance floor and shake her groove thang. She also loved to attend outings, such as the "All White Party" at Government Square, concerts at Washington Park, the Black Family Reunion, or just about anything that was going on around the city of Cincinnati. She did not need an entourage of people with her she did not mind going solo.

Tanya was an only child. Although she grew up alone, she was constantly surrounded by family, especially her cousins who were more like siblings. One thing about Tanya, she loved her children and her family dearly. She looked forward to attending the family gatherings. She always let her loved ones know that she loved them, and was happy to have them in her life.

Throughout her battles with her health and the traumas she experienced in life, Tanya held onto her faith in Jesus Christ. Her belief and trust in God's promises kept her going, even during the darkest moments. She prayed for God's help through the pain and trauma she faced, and it was His strength that sustained her until the end. When Tanya had given all she had, God granted her the peace, love, and redemption she sought. Tanya was deeply loved by many due to her generous and selfless nature. Although she is at rest now, her love will continue to touch the lives of those who knew her.

Tanya's Sunset arrived on June 11, 2024, at 8:20 PM. Tanya was preceded in death by her mother, Sharon "Rena" Slocum; stepfather, Robert "Bobbie" Stone; her grandparents: Eugene and Cornelia Slocum, three aunts: Arzonias "Red" Thorton, Yvonne Slocum, and Lisa Slocum; as well as one uncle, Eugene Slocum, Jr.

Tanya leaves used to celebrate her elevation, but miss her physical presence: her five children: Tamika, Tamara, and TieShawn Slocum, Tiara and Tatiana Buckler-Slocum; one grandson, Kaden Slocum; three aunts: Karen Lathan, Deborah (Anthony) Kincaid, and Kimberly Slocum; three uncles: Derrick, Harry, and Eddie Slocum; four special cousins: Charles "Chuck" McKee, Sr. (Terice), Delonda "Dee-Dee" Slocum, Nikita "Kita" Slocum, and Reginald "Reggie" Slocum; one close friend, Kirsten Sweat; an abundance of cousins, extended family, and friends.
