Obituary

With heavy hearts and joyous memories, we celebrate the life of Alberto Santana, who departed this world on August 27, 2025, at the age of 50. Born on May 24, 1975, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Alberto was a beloved son, father, brother, uncle, and friend who brought light and laughter to all who knew him.

Affectionately known as "Albe", was especially close to his mother Carmen. She was the light of his life. He was always by her side from a child through his adolescent years. She was his priority, she was the love of his life and everyone knew it.

Albe's journey was one of resilience and determination. He proudly earned his Graduate Equivalence Degree and dedicated his life to his work as a mechanic, where he became known for his skill, dedication, and unwavering kindness. His passion for fixing things extended beyond the garage; he was always ready to lend a hand, share a laugh, or offer advice to those around him.

As a member of the Puerto Rican community, Albe embraced his heritage with pride and celebrated it daily through his warmth and generosity. His spirit radiated joy, whether he was spending time with his beloved children, or sister, Ennette Rodriguez, and more recently connecting with his grandchildren and great niece and nephews.

While we mourn the loss of this remarkable man, we also cherish the many beautiful memories he created. Alberto's legacy will continue to shine through the love he shared and the impact he made on all who crossed his path.

As we gather to remember a wonderful man, we invite everyone whose lives were touched by Albe to come and share in this celebration of life, ensuring that his spirit lives on in our hearts.

Albe leaves to cherish his parents Carmen Colon, and father, Albert Santana, Children: Angelica, Jonathan, Shannon, Jocelynn, Cassandra, Karisma, Ulysses, Emilio, Israel, Alyssa, Precious, Sister: Ennette Rodriguez, Nieces: Mariangely, Jessica, Alicia, Nephews: Chelito and a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends.
