Obituary

Gilda Clark, a beautiful bundle of joy, was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on Friday, September 28, 1951, to the late William Clark and Vivian Clark (Johnson). She departed this life on June 18, 2024. She was the second of eight children and was also raised by her stepfather, the late Charles Johnson.

In Gilda's early years, she was raised in The Lincoln Courts. She attended church with her mother as a little girl at Southern Baptist, where she accepted Christ at an early age. She attended Robert A. Taft High School, where she received many awards and certificates. She enjoyed playing volleyball and other sports.

Gilda, affectionately referred to as "Red," loved to sing and dance to her favorite music. She had a strong passion for music, loved writing poetry, cooking, and getting dressed up. She had a great time with her family and friends, attending many musical concerts.

She had a strong, unconditional love for her only child, her son TC, and her grandchildren, to whom she gave her all. Her favorite thing to do was sing to her family and friends on their birthdays. She loved her family and life itself!

Gilda worked passionately and diligently all her life. Even after retirement, she maintained a position in Environmental Health. She had strong faith in God and would pray constantly. Gilda was a strong woman, the backbone for everyone. She was a loving mother, caring daughter, protective sister, and loyal friend with a zero-tolerance policy.

Gilda was preceded in death by her mother Vivian Johnson, father William Clark, stepfather Charles Johnson, and grandson Tyree Clark.

Gilda leaves to cherish her memories: her son Terry Clark Sr.; her siblings Gail Benton, Venustien Clark, Cheyenne Ford (Bernadette), Shelia Johnson, Doretha (Thomas) Price, Wilhelmina Johnson, and Kevin Johnson; her grandchildren Terry Clark Jr., Trenton Blanks, Te'Nisha Clark, and Ce'Keya Clark; her great-grandchildren Jalayshia White, Aaliyah Davis, True Clark, and Miranda Clark; her goddaughter Jo'Via Kelly; special friends Willie Wisdom and Kym (Von) Kelly; as well as a host of loving nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

"Don't"

Don't spend too much time in mourning tears are for the sad,
I left to be with Jesus and that should make you very glad.
Don't waste your hours in grieving no need to feel distress,
I'm tired of life's frustrations and had to get some rest.
Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why,
life for me has ended it came my time to die.
Don't lose the love I gave you feed it with great care,
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.
Don't Fret because my leaving came in such a way,
We will have another meeting in God's eternal day.

"I'll Be Seeing You"

I am at rest so don't you cry, it will get more easier as times go by. I've done my best to live a good life, for I know if I did, I could be with Christ. As my body lay here it's only a shell, God has called me home and my job I've done well.

Now I am happy and very content, for the things I've done wrong I repent. You know and I know that it is hard on earth, so you should not cry at death but at birth. I have no worries, pain, or fears, because I am with God so dry your tears. I love you all and this is what I want you to do; put God first in your life and I'll be seeing you.

Mama I miss you & I love you. Mama, I appreciate the Love you always had for me.

You mean so much in the world to me. Keep

God's Word around you Mama and I wish you an abundance of love and life

Love your son,

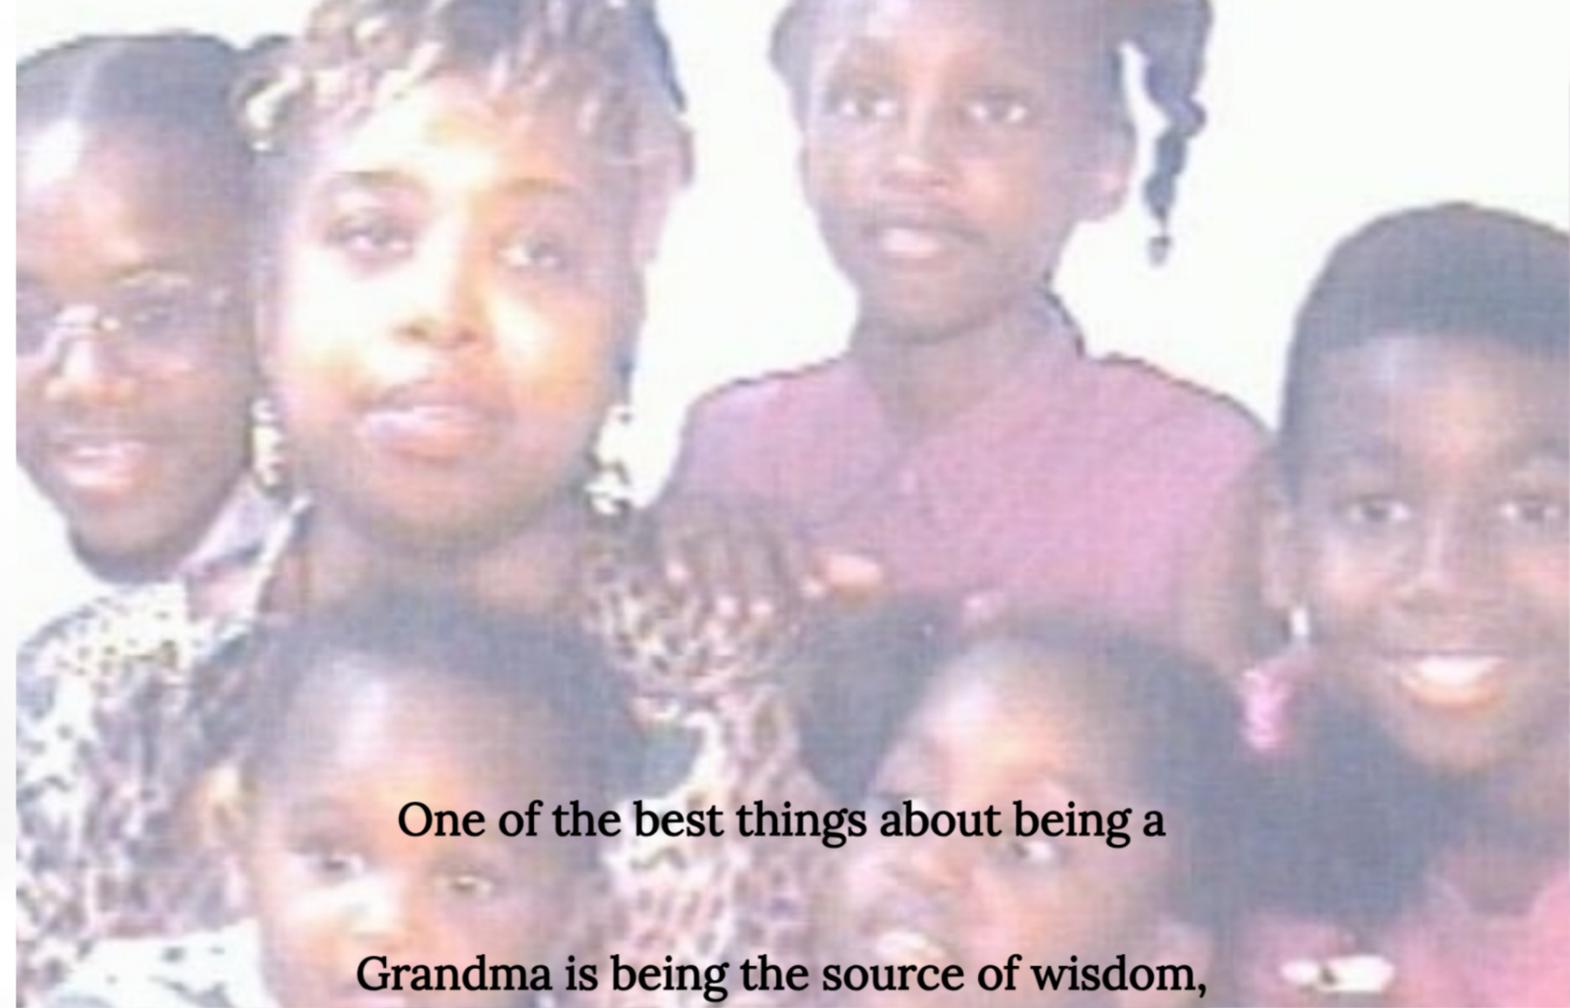

Terry Dechaun Clark Sr.
