

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me

I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Ryan Daniel Parker was born on April 21, 1981, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Barbra Parker—her only child—and Billy Dailey. A proud graduate of Taft High School, Class of 2000, Ryan’s journey into ministry began early. At the age of 16, he met Pastor Damon Lynch Jr. through a mentorship program, and from that moment, a deep father-son bond was formed that helped shape his path and purpose.

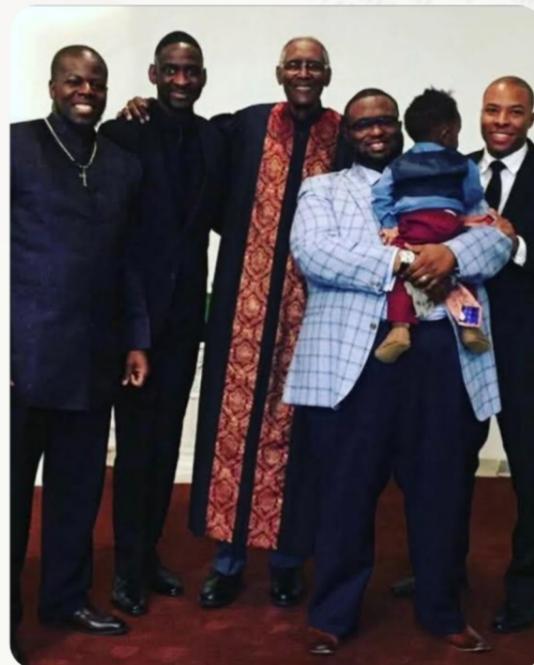

Ryan later pursued higher education at Beulah Heights Bible College in Atlanta, Georgia, where he deepened his knowledge and passion for the Word of God.

A gifted vessel of God’s truth, Ryan shared his love for the Lord through music. With a heart rooted in worship, he wrote and recorded over one hundred songs—each one carrying messages of faith, hope, and the transformative power of Jesus Christ. His musical legacy will continue to inspire and uplift generations to come.

But Ryan’s ministry extended beyond music. He had a divine calling to teach, serve, and reach people wherever they were—in person, online, or inside the church. His life was a testament to his purpose: to spread the goodness of Jesus to everyone he encountered.

In 2013, Ryan met the love of his life Diane Parker, and in 2014, they were joyfully united in marriage. Together, they built a life rooted in love, purpose, and unwavering faith.

Above all, Ryan was a devoted father to six beautiful children: Rian Parker, Rhys Parker, Rylan Parker, Roman Parker, Royce Parker, and Ryah Parker—all of whom he loved deeply and unconditionally. Ryan was preceded in death by his father, Billy Dailey; his beloved grandmother, Katie Parker, with whom he shared a special bond; his grandfather, Howard Otis Parker; and several dear aunts. His presence, passion, and purpose-filled life will forever be cherished by his family, which included his only sister Beth friends, church community, and all who were blessed to know him.

Romans 8:28

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
