

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Romans 11:36

*For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.*

IN LOVING MEMORY

FLOYD JAMES SELF

1949-2026

In Loving Memory
of
Floyd James Self

Service

Thursday, February 19, 2026

11:00 am

*Beaty Funeral Home Chapel
Winnsboro, Texas*

Officiating

Pastor Steve Stasny – Message

Clint Feagin – Obituary

Special Music

“How Great Thou Art”

“Old Rugged Cross”

“Amazing Grace”

“Lead Me Home”

Pallbearers

Mitchell Self, Wayne Self, Calvin Lamont

Craig Self, Jeff Self, Gary Self

Michael Self, Christopher Self

Honorary Pallbearers

Ricky Butler, Richard Johnson

Interment

Bethel Cemetery

Scroggins, Texas

Floyd James Self, 76, passed away on February 12, 2026, in Sherman, Texas.

Floyd was born on July 22, 1949, in Blue Ridge, Georgia as the twin brother of Lloyd Self. As a young boy, he moved with his family to Michigan City, Indiana, where he spent most of his childhood and teenage years.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Charlie and Fannie Bell Self, and by his eight brothers: RB, JC, Roy, Hershel ("Pee Wee"), Eugene, Robert, Vance, and Lloyd. Floyd was the youngest of nine children and the last surviving sibling.

Floyd briefly served in the United States Air Force. During his time in service, he made the decision to request leave in order to care for his family.

He later followed his brothers to the Garland and Plano, Texas area, where he worked as a Volkswagen mechanic. Floyd had a natural mechanical ability and took pride in honest, hands-on work. He also worked in construction alongside his brothers.

Above all, Floyd loved to fish. Fishing was more than a pastime for him - he truly cherished fishing with his family and especially his grandkids. He also enjoyed working on cars and boats and casually collecting coins, always appreciating the satisfaction of fixing things and spending time outdoors.

Floyd professed faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, a conviction that was meaningful to him and to his family.

He is survived by his daughter, Amanda Feagin and husband Clint of McKinney, Texas, and his son Chad Self and his wife Jamie of Whitewright, Texas. He also leaves behind five beloved grandchildren: Aaron and Claire Feagin, and Caleb, Chloe, and Colton Self.

Floyd spent the later part of his life in Scroggins, Texas, where he enjoyed a quieter pace and time near the water.

He will be remembered for his strong work ethic, his love of staying busy and fixing what needed fixing, his love for his family, and his enjoyment of a simple life.