There are not enough words to fully express our heartfelt appreciation for the sympathy, love, and support you have extended to our family during the loss of our loved one. May God bless and keep you.

A Message For My Children

When the day comes that there are no more tomorrows for me, one of my biggest regrets will be not being able to be there at your side should you need me.

My wish for you then will always be that your lives are long and healthy and that you follow your dreams wherever they may lead.

When you look back and I am but a memory I pray that you remember that you were, are, and always will be deeply loved by me

In Loving Memory
Mozetta Parker

November 16, 1956 - October 17, 2024

Mozetta (nee Bufford) Parker, born on November 16, 1956, departed this world on October 17, 2024, leaving behind a legacy woven into the very fabric of those who knew and cherished her. A woman of multiple talents, Mozetta worked in the hotel service industry and factory work, yet it was in the nurturing embrace of her home that she truly flourished as a beloved homemaker.

Affectionately known as Ms. Moe and Doodle, her laughter and warmth encapsulated the spirit of her favorite color, yellow, embodying a personality that radiated positivity and joy. Mozetta's zest for life was evident in her engaging pastimes; she found satisfaction in the simplicity of spending time with family, friends, and her favorite canine companion Roxy. Her passion for games, particularly backgammon, brought countless evenings of friendly competition, camaraderie, and shared memories. An aficionado of latchhook crafts, she crafted beauty with her hands, while her love for game shows provided entertainment and delight. The thrill of gambling presented another avenue of enjoyment, with trips to casinos and shopping outings marking moments of adventure and excitement.

Mozetta is survived by her loving children, Galen T. Parker and Almanetta Parker, alongside her former spouse, Galen Parker. She also leaves behind her cherished daughter, Jasmine Wells, and Jasmine's father, Louis Wells. Her nurturing spirit extended to her grandchildren—Rozetta Keys, Jaylen Knox, Dawon Lee, Tye'shawn Lee, Javazz Williams, Javon Williams, De'aveon Johnson, Isaiah Parker, Jeremiah Parker, Jaden Bloodworth, and Dechey Stagers—each a testament to her legacy, further complemented by many great-grandchildren, extended family and a plethora of friends who found joy in her companionship.

She was reunited in heaven with her parents Moses and Alma Bufford, two siblings and nieces and nephews.

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness, don't remember me with tears,
remember all good times,
shared throughout the years.

Now I am contented that my life it was worthwhile, because I know by loving you that I made you smile.

When you are walking down the street and you've got me on your mind, I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy just because I'm out of sight, remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
