Poem

God saw you getting tired,
He did what He thought was best.
He put His arms around you, and said come rest.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone.
A part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
We love you and you will be missed.

Obituary

Macquilene "Mac" Brown was born August 15, 1938 in Mobile, Alabama to Oillie Mae Brown (Smith) and Oillie Smith, Sr. Macquilene enjoyed spending time with her family and friends, she was funny and the life of the party. Mac was loved by many, to know her was to love her. Everyone had a special place in her heart and she also kept it real. Macquilene worked many years at the Veterans Home where she retired from. Macquilene was the oldest of twelve siblings: Willie Mae (Charlie) Myles of Chicago, IL; Sherrie and Karin Smith of Grand Rapids, MI; Tamara Hamilton of Pensacola, FL and Manuel Smith, Sr. of Phoenix, AZ. She leaves to cherish two children: Keith and Sheila Brown. Macquilene was proceeded in death by her parents Oillie Mae Smith and Oillie Smith, Sr.; one sister, Leesther Johnson; brothers, Oillie Zeke, Jr.; James, Carl and Larry Smith; and Henry Lovelady (Hank). She leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family and friends.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept my faith."
