

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me
in the presence of my enemies;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

In Loving Memory

Marjorie Lou Reinert

May 11, 1934 - December 13, 2025

Marjorie Lou Reinert

Born the first of four children to Joseph and Florence Zimmer, Marjorie grew up on a farm outside of Beloit. She met and later married Laurence Reinert on May 4, 1957. She lived on a farm by Tipton, Kansas and moved to Downs in 1963, where they ran the Downs Sale Barn and began expanding their farming operation.

Marge was actively involved in her children's lives. She prepared countless meals and loads of laundry for her family of seven, baked on a daily to weekly basis, sewed, quilted and maintained numerous uniforms and work clothes. She drove the trucks and made food during wheat harvests. She worked at the nursing home, cooked and baked at the local cafe. She was a Queen of Tops, leader of Altar Society, and enjoyed going to the casinos, and attending K-State football games with her partner in crime Carolyn Schmitt. She was famous for her cinnamon rolls, pies, and sweetness. When she knew you loved something, she went above and beyond to get you the very thing you treasured. She put numerous miles on her vehicles to watch her kids and grandkids participate in sporting events. She also supported numerous fundraisers which included more than a decade of bake sales.

Marge's greatest joys and love were her seven children, grandchildren, family, faith, and close friends. She loved making someone's day special (and had numerous talents to pull it off, whether it be finding or creating the perfect gift, showing up unexpectedly for an event, baking their favorite treat and was always up for a fun adventure). She enjoyed traveling, seeing new places and having adventures.

She was preceded in death by her husband Laurence, grandson Rusty Davis, sister and brother-in-law Janet and Don Schlatter, niece Sharon Cordel, and parents Joseph and Florence Zimmer.

She is survived by her sister Alberta (Ed) Cordel, brother Gerald (Terri) Zimmer, daughters Jeanne (Rick) Mans, Denise, Joann (Louis) Loveless, and Karen, sons Edgar, Charles, Arnold (Christine); granddaughters Bridgette Davis, Tracey (Brian) Brummer, Annie (Paul) Reichenberger, grandsons Brian (Michaela) Mans, Craig (Michele) Mans, Eric Mans (Sara Cook), Nick Reinert, along with 19 great-grandchildren and several nephews and nieces.

Visitation will be on Tuesday, December 16th from 5 to 6 p.m. with family present at St. Mary's Catholic Church. A rosary will follow at 6 p.m. Mass of Christian Burial will be at St. Mary's Catholic Church on Wednesday, December 17 at 10 a.m. Interment will follow at Downs Cemetery. Memorials may be made to St. Mary's Catholic Church or St. John's School Endowment, in care of Schoen Funeral Home & Monuments, 1001 Morgan Ave., Downs, KS 67437.
