THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

Davontie DAYLIN-LEE MOORE

Davontie Daylin-Lee Moore born August 29, 1994 in Long Beach, California at Pacific Hospital and passed away at the age of 30 years old on July 31, 2025 in Las Vegas, Nevada. Vontie, as he was affectionately known, was a shining light in the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing him. His journey on this earth was one marked by love, compassion, and unwavering loyalty to his family and friends. Vontie had many great attributes, he was a protector, a gentleman with a flare for fashion. His passing has left a void in the hearts of his family, friends, and many more whose lives were touched by him. We ask that you remember his zest for life and his natural charm to get his way. But most of all for the profound impact he had on the lives of those who had the pleasure of knowing this loving forgiving young man.

Davontie is survived by his beloved wife Mykela Shelton-Moore, Aubrey Lorraine Moore (daughter), Jeremiah White-Moore (son). His loving parents, Daniel Moore (Father and Gwendolyn Brown (Mother), Tracy McCowen (step-mother), Tychicka Baker (step-mother). Grandparents Soonja Oh-Stephans and Sherman Stephans, Larry and Toni Goodall. His brothers Daniel Moore Jr., Elijah and Isaiah Bolick, Eric Mcgee, Ja'mese and Jairee Herring, Ricardo Figueroa, Carlos and Donovan Brown, Darius Robinson, Aundre' Haywood, and Nicholas Watkins. Sisters Danielle Moore, and Leilani Figueroa. Vontie also leaves behind aunts and uncles who adored him dearly. Among them are Gary Oh, Cory, Larry, and Kimberly Goodall and his best friends Jeremy Mcgee, Garlin Crockrom, and Chelsee Grigsby. Last but not least his God children Krystal and Khai. Also a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends who shared in his joyful spirit. He was predeceased by his younger brother Demeko Brown, and Grandfather Keith Skank.

He was a loving father, a star athlete on the basketball court, a caring big brother, and a beloved son. Vontie was a beacon of kindness with a gentle soul that touched all who knew him. He never gave up on those he loved and cared for in his life. His laughter will forever echoed through our home, a melody of his music will forever resonate in our memories.
