The Obituary

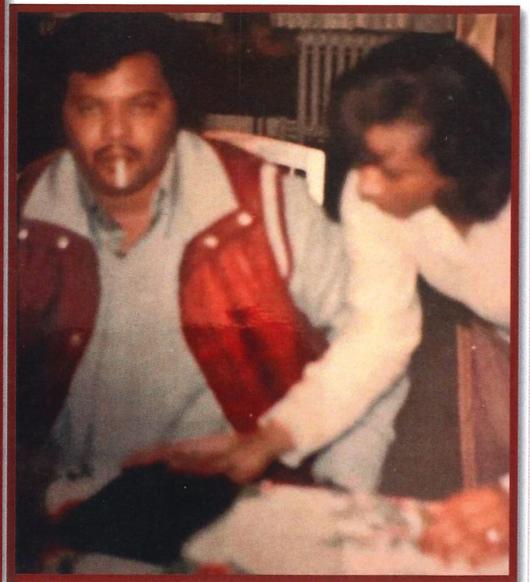

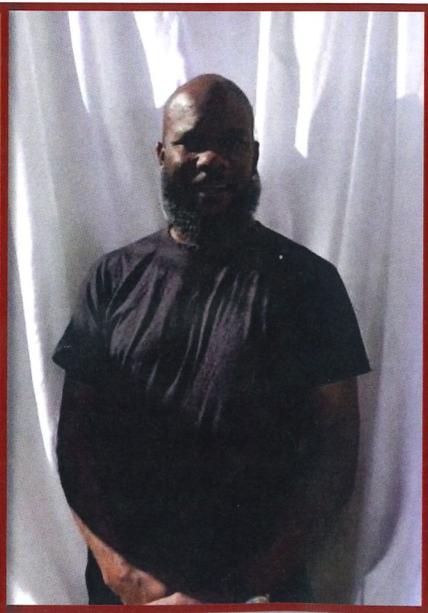

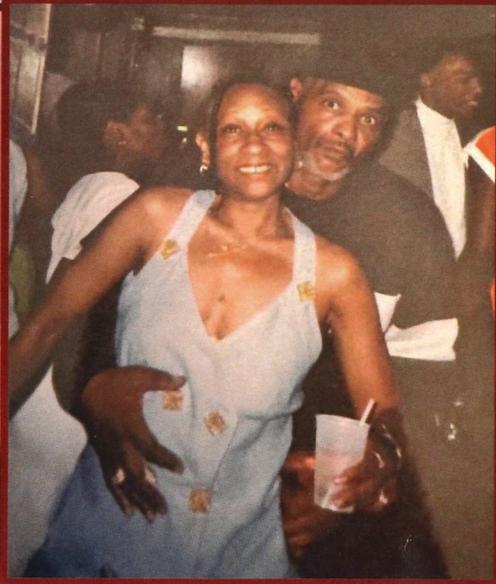

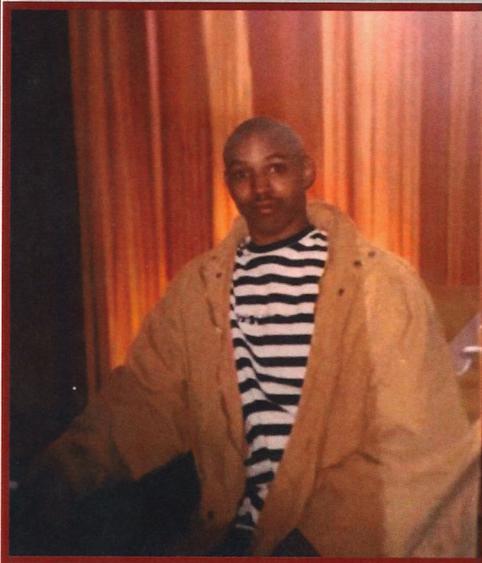

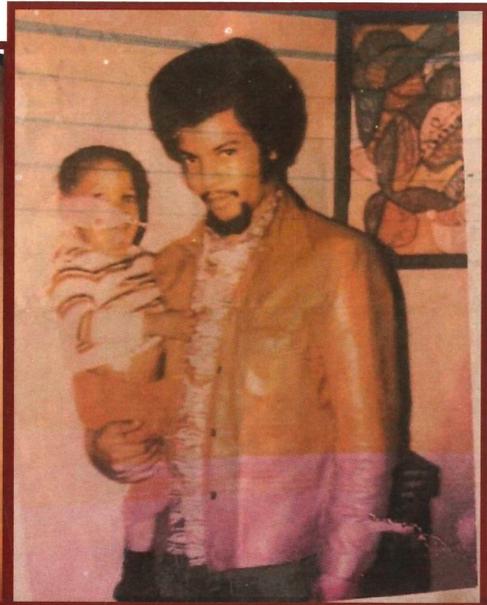

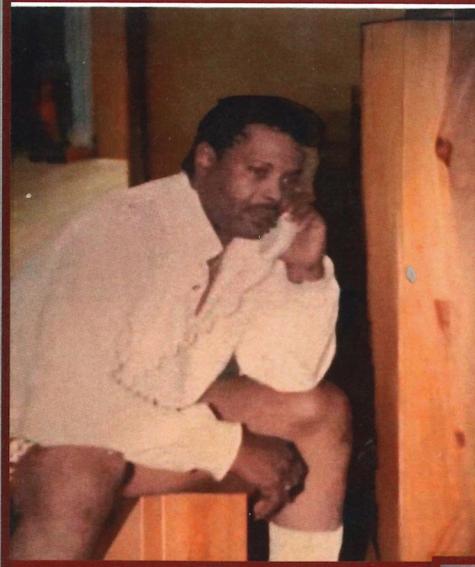

Harold Gregory White Sr., 69, known as DJ, Greg and Pop, was born on November 19, 1953, in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the second of three children born to Harold James White and Genevieve S. Hall.

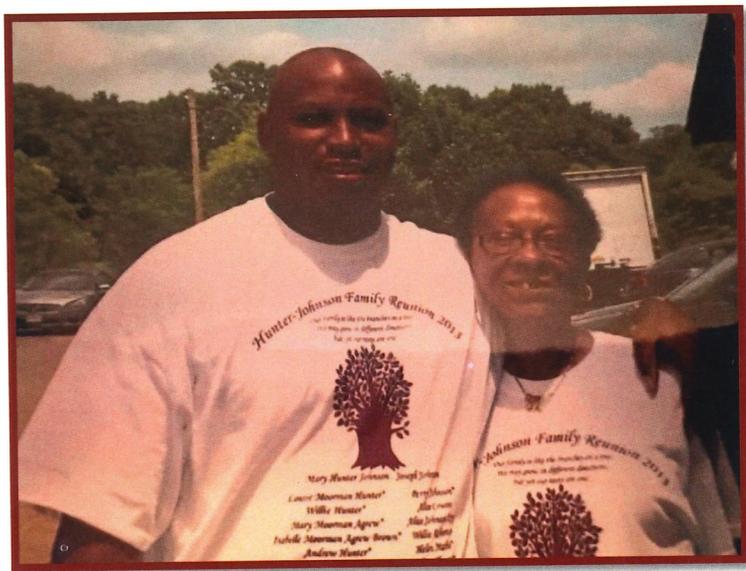

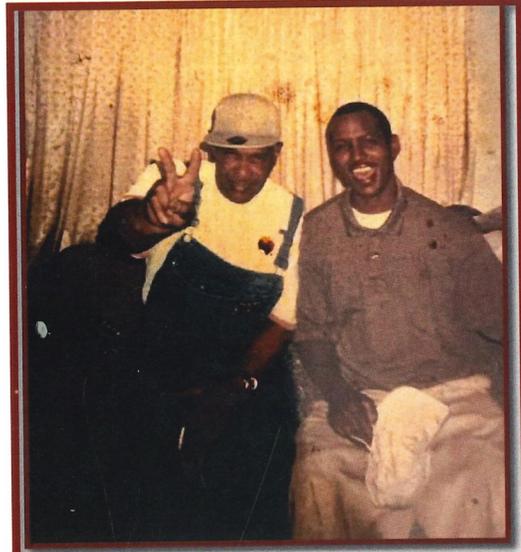

At the tender age of seven, he was raised by Virginia White through marriage to the late Harold James White.

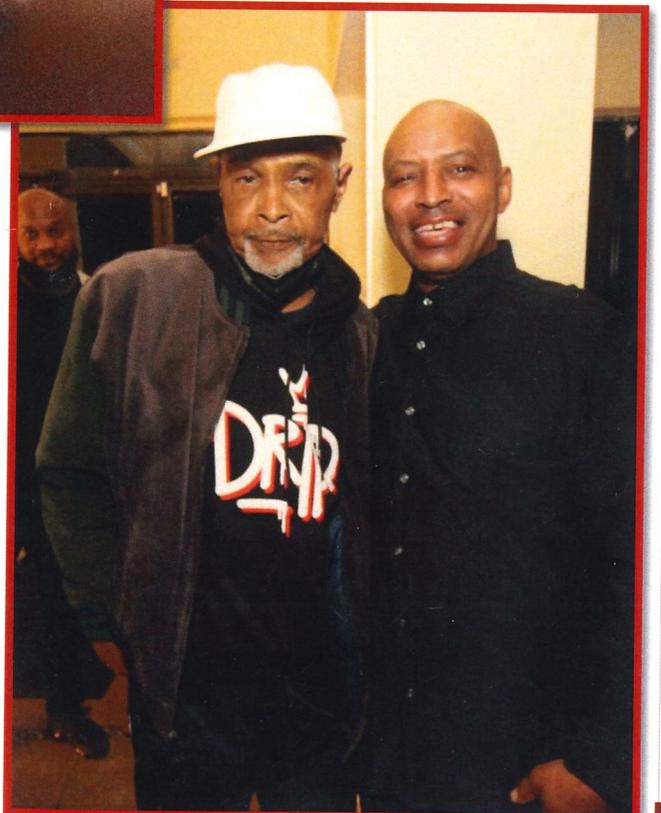

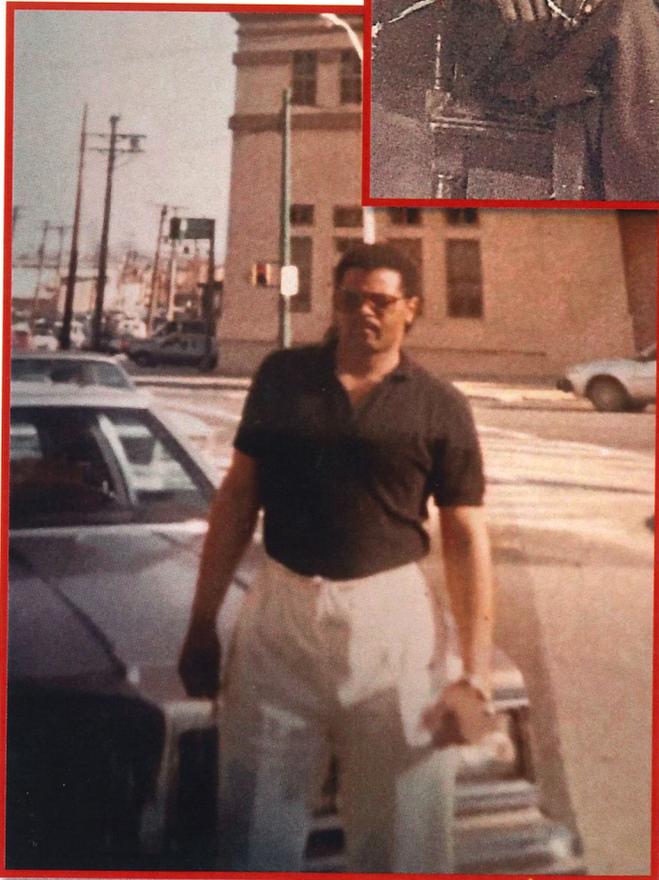

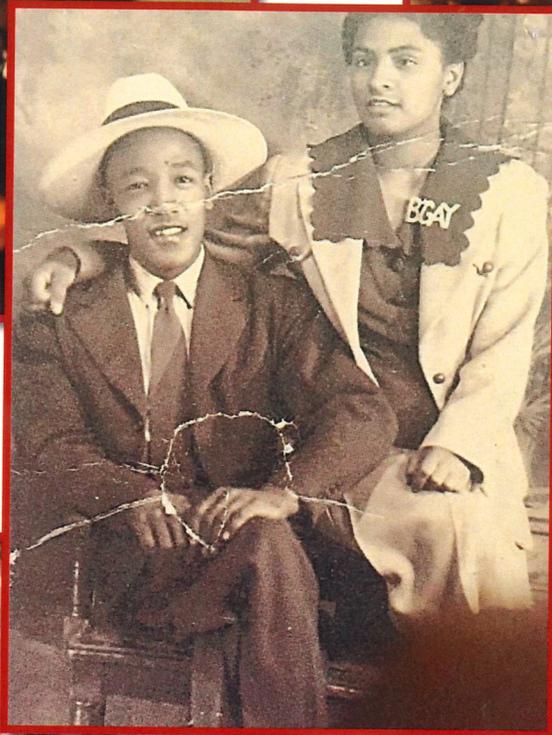

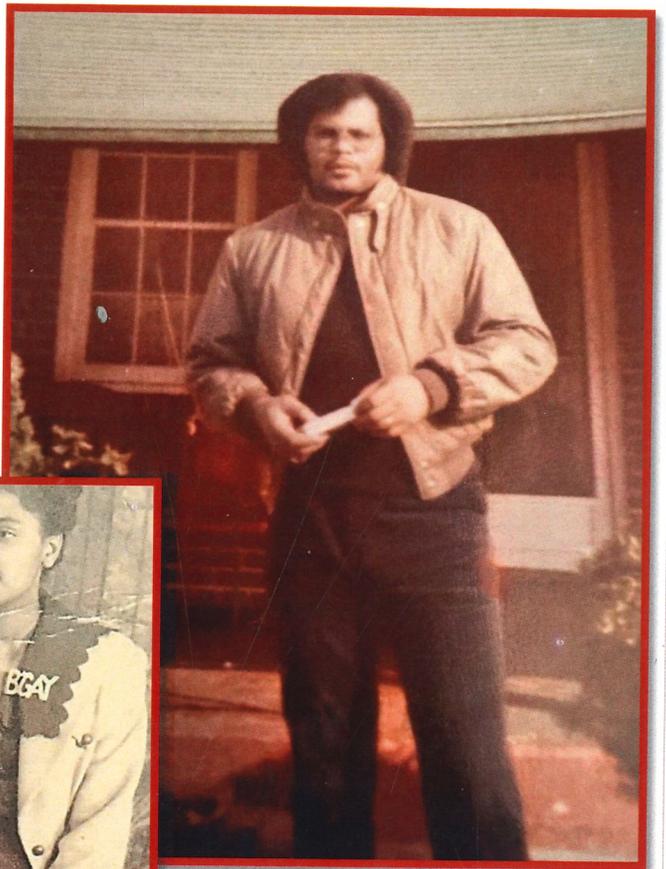

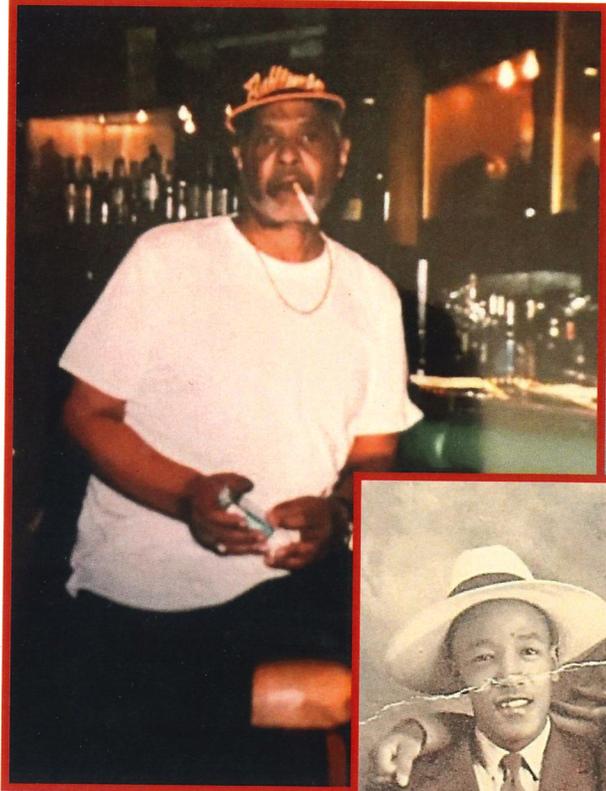

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. He graduated from Douglass High School where he played on the basketball team. He loved sports dearly. He was raised on Dukeland Street across from the basketball court, where he met many friends. After high school, he was employed with the State of Maryland where he eventually retired from the Montrose Juvenile Detention Center.

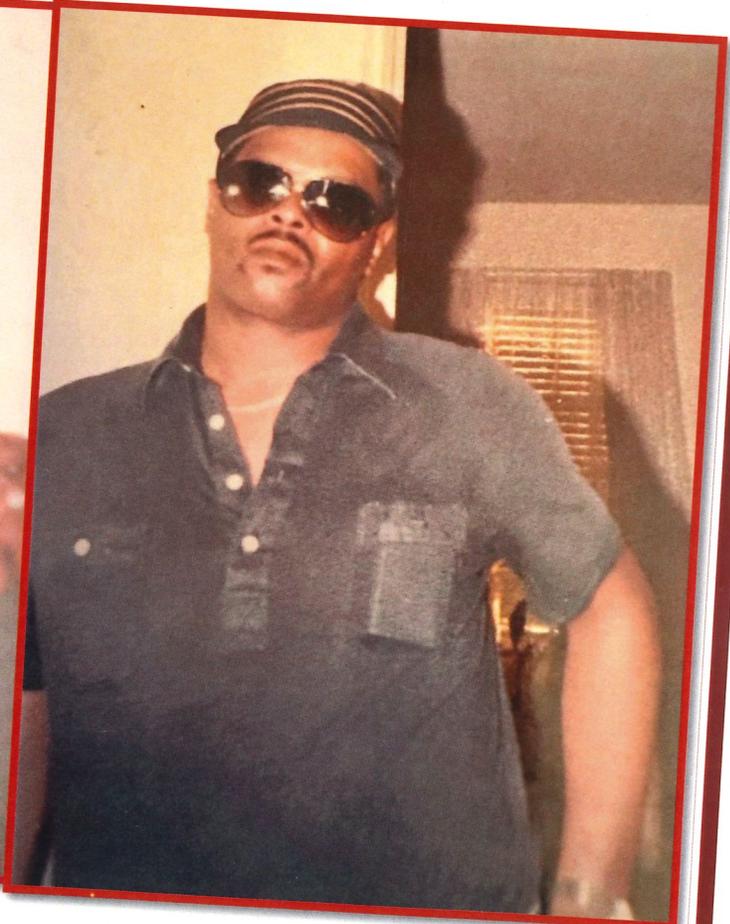

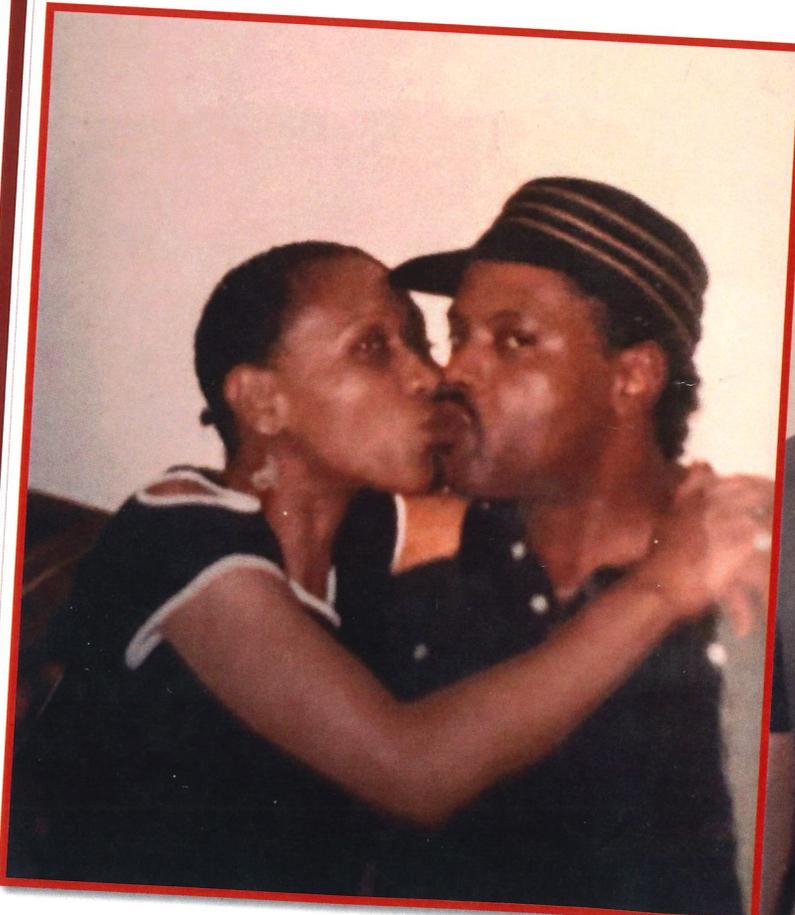

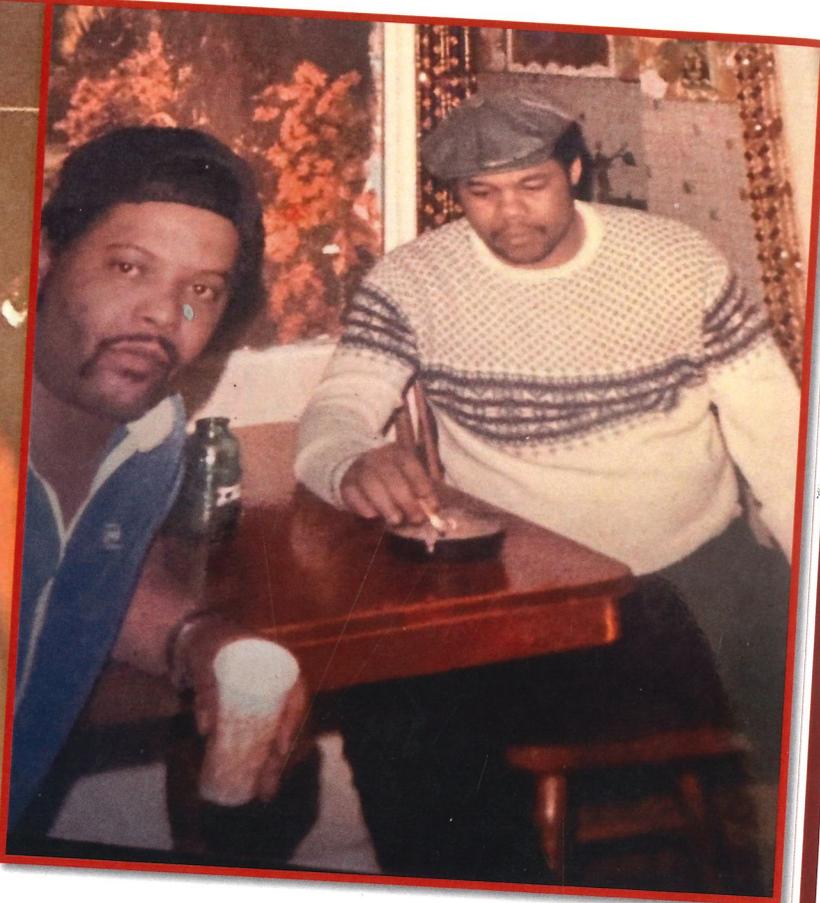

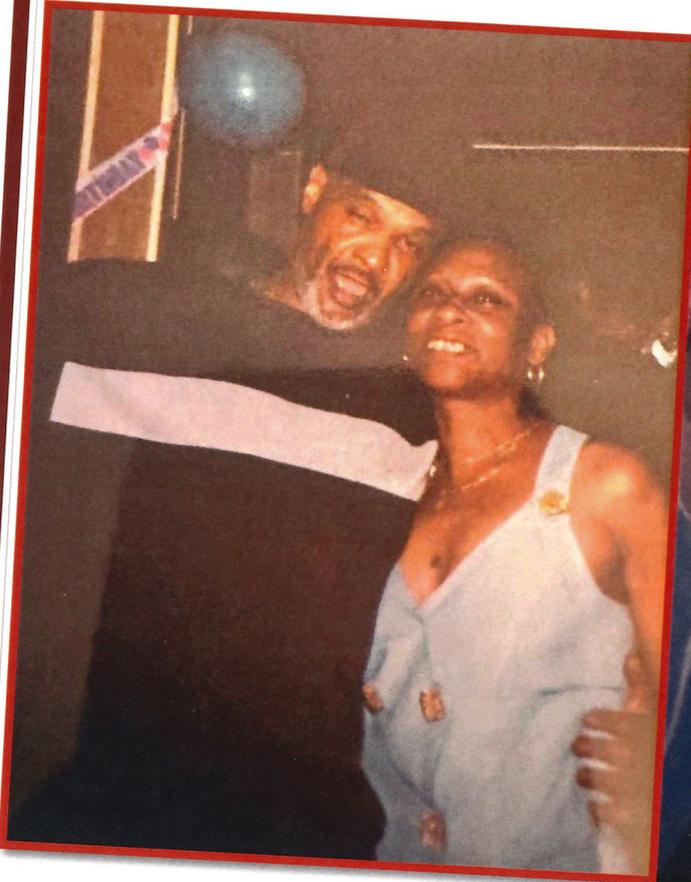

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers Terry White and Rickey White, and his daughter Hope Johnson.

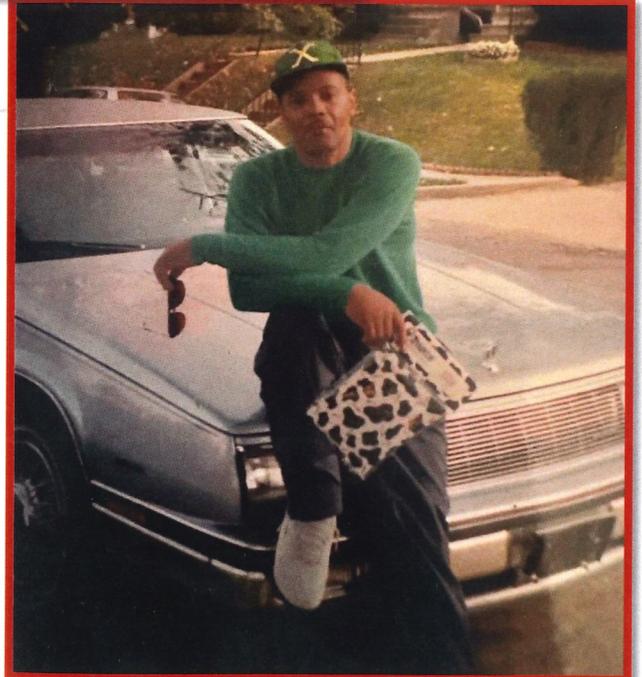

Harold leaves to mourn his passing, his wife Wanda White, a sister Bertina Miles (Cameron), his stepmother Virginia White, his children, Harold Gregory White Jr. (Ramona), Terri Shinn, Terry Johnson, Mia Johnson, and Erica White, two sisters-in-law; Mona Sherrod (Dr. Robert Sherrod) and Barbara Jones, 19 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren, as well as a special friend Irving Smith (Machie), a beloved Cousin Randall White, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

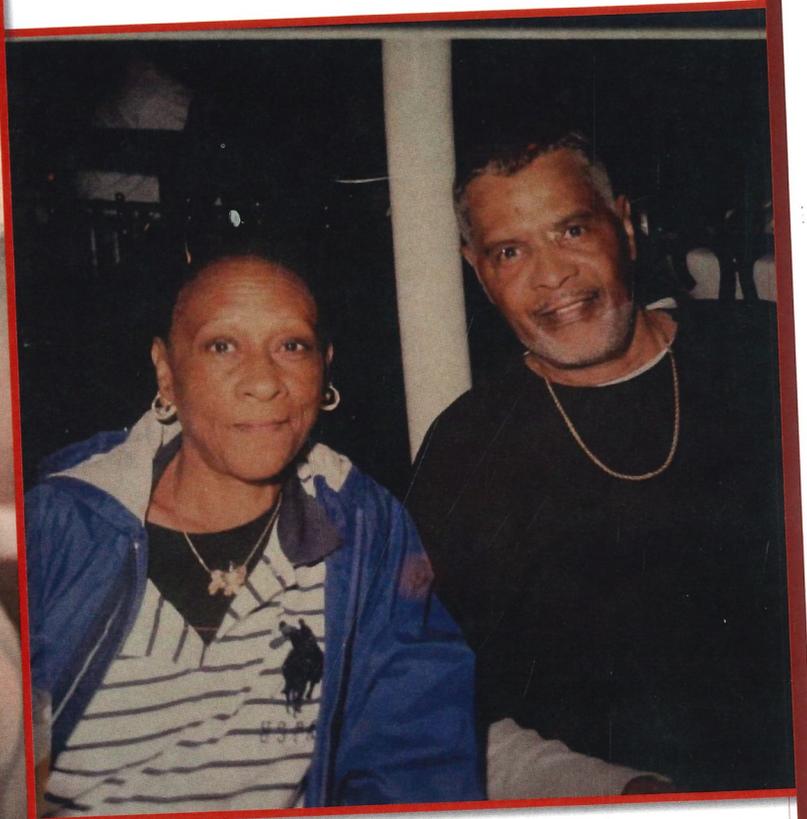

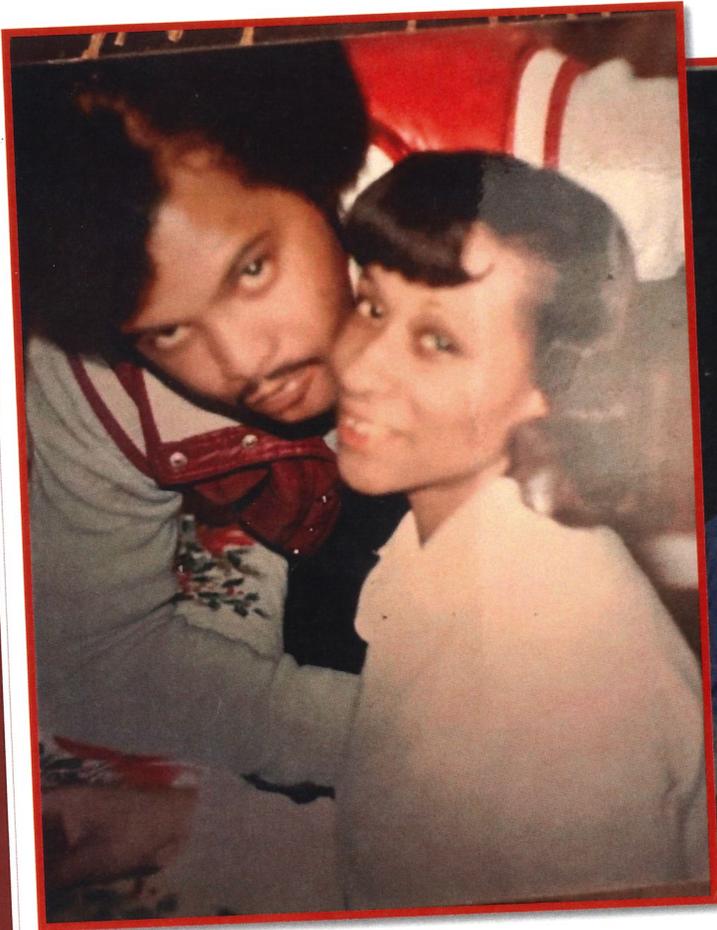

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude for the continuous outpouring of love and support during this time of grief. Each expression of love and friendship is greatly appreciated.
