Obituary

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away”~Revelation 21:4

Lula Peden Sherrod was born to the late Solar Peden and Carrie Tartt Peden on March 21, 1943, in DeKalb, Mississippi. She departed her life on January 14, 2025, peacefully at home surrounded by family and friends.

Lula attended Booker T. Washington School in Philadelphia, Mississippi. After graduating high school, she moved to Cleveland, Ohio where she met the love of her life, Posey Sherrod in 1963, to whom she joined in holy matrimony in November 1965.

While living in Cleveland, Ohio, Lula was employed at a local daycare center for several years. Lula’s hobbies were baking, taking care of children, traveling, and dressing up nicely and looking beautiful.

Lula later moved back to Mississippi where she was an active member and on the usher board at Mt. Ary Missionary Baptist Church.

Lula was preceded in death by her parents, Solar and Carrrie Peden; three sisters, Sallie M. Stokes, Ruby Dunn and Annie Clemons; her beloved husband, Posey Sherrod.

Lula leaves her memories to be cherished by an incredibly special niece, Winter Reynolds of Philadelphia, Mississippi and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, friends, and Godchildren.

A Letter To Our Aunt in Heaven

They say there is a reason, they say time will heal. Neither time nor reason will change the way we feel. Gone are the days we used to share, but in our hearts, you are always there. The gates of memories will never close. We will miss you more than anybody knows. We love and miss you every day. Until we meet again. Always And Forever.

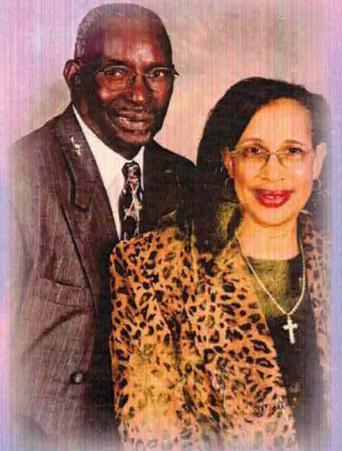

*~With Much Love,
Your Nieces and Nephews*

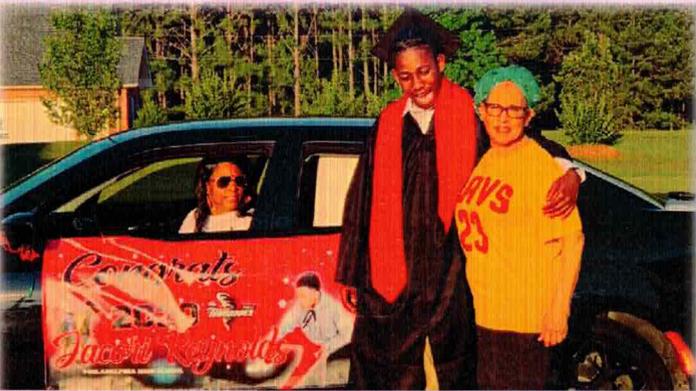

Not Ready To Let You Go

Sometimes in life there are losses. Losses that can never really be replaced. Losing you has been the hardest thing we've ever had to live with. We were not ready to say goodbye. We weren't ready to let you leave. We would give anything for just one more day, just one more second. But we've learned to trust in unconditional love. Because the one profound thing about death is that love never dies. Some bonds cannot be broken. Because even though you're not physically here, your heart is---it leaves on within us. We carry our heart inside of ours. We carry it on days when we discover something new. We carry it on days when we find courage to heal and to grow. We carry it with us---always. Someday we will meet again--and we will no longer be separated by time or space. But until that day, we'll find comfort in knowing that you are still with us. Your heart is tucked inside of ours. Some hearts just belong together, and nothing will ever change that. We loved you then. We love you now. Always did. Always will. Forever in our minds. Forever in our hearts. We will carry you. We will always love and miss you with every passing day. The longing we have just to see you will never go away.
