Poem

Pastor Golden

“Do not stand
By my grave, and weep.
I am not there,
I do not sleep—
I am the thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints in snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle, autumn rain.
As you awake with morning's hush,
I am the swift, up-flinging rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight,
I am the day transcending night.
Do not stand
By my grave, and cry—
I am not there,
I did not die”.

Acknowledgement

The Jackson family would like to thank everyone for attending today's service to celebrate Malcolm Jackson Jr. We appreciate the comforting tributes, acknowledgements and love during this time of bereavement. The support is felt and honored deeply.

We also thank those who could not attend, but have expressed their concerns and love. We are uplifted and thankful for those who called, sent flowers, bought tress or kept us in prayer. May God bless you and keep you.
