

Heavenly Father, my brother is on his way guide him safely to Heaven's gate.
If by chance he gets there slow it's just so hard to let him go, but if I must so he can rest

Still there is something I must confess a piece of my brother I kept behind

My brother's memory that's all mine.
Memories collected through the years the smiles,
the laughs, the pain, the tears all accumulated before this goodbye
So that in my memory, he will never die.

By: Leonard Joseph Thompson

Acknowledgements

We, the family of Mark A, Thompson sincerely thank each of you for your kind expressions of love and sympathy extended to us during our time of bereavement.

Davis Funeral Home
89 Walnut Avenue, Roxbury
654 Cummins Highway, Mattapan
617 427-0828 617 296-1755
www.DavisOfBoston.com

In Loving Memory of
Mark A. Thompson
September 2, 1965 - December 14, 2024

Friday, January 3, 2025
11AM

DAVIS FUNERAL HOME

654 CUMMINS HIGHWAY
MATTAPAN, MASSACHUSETTS

Obituary

Mark A. Thompson beloved, brother, uncle, and friend.

Mark A. Thompson, 59, of Boston, MA departed this life on Saturday, December 14, 2024, after an illness.

Mark was born on September 2, 1965, in Raleigh County WV to Mae Lee Gregory and John Thompson. Mark Anthony Thompson was the ninth child of eleven brothers and sisters. He is survived by his brother Leonard Thompson and two sister, Olivia and Sissy Thompson.

Mark and his family moved to Boston, MA when he was a child, and this is where he was educated, worked, and lived his life. He spent most of his adult life learning and working as an appliance technician and carpenter. He applied his trade in the community where he was well known and loved by the ones he knew. He worked at Bells furniture on Blue Hill Ave., Dorchester MA, and also Chucks furniture on Washington Street , Roxbury MA. Mark's passion was working with his hands and he could repair anything broken.

Mark enjoyed being outdoors and spending time with family and friends laughing and joking; Mark was generous and would do anything to help anyone. The one thing he loved the most was spending time with his numerous nieces and nephews.

You will be always love and never forgotten....Rest In peace!

Mark is survived by his sisters, brother, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Order of Service

Processional

Invocation

Opening Hymn

Scripture Readings:

Old Testament

New Testament

Remarks

Family & Friends

Obituary Reading

Acknowledgements

Eulogy

Benediction