

Susanne M. (Boyer) Baka died Monday.

Susanne was born in Scranton, the daughter of the late Felix and Genevieve (Jane) Kellock Boyer. A member of the Mid Valley High School Class of 1974, she also attended Penn State Worthington. She was employed by MEM Concrete, Simpson, as an administrative assistant and in the past held positions as secretary, bookkeeper and office manager at Kerl Oil, Simpson, P&M Associates, Mayfield, J Fashions, Jessup, Good Quality Sewing, Honesdale, and Throop Fashions, Throop. She was currently employed by Weis Markets, Carbondale, and McLane Inc., Jessup. Susanne was a loyal, honest and devoted employee.

Susanne was a member of both Blessed Sacrament Parish, St. Anthony's Church, Throop, as well as Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish, Mayfield, and Sacred of Hearts of Jesus & Mary Parish, Jermyn, where she served as an extraordinary Minister of Communion and a lector. She was also a member of the Rosary and worked the bi-monthly Bingo.

An accomplished baker and cook, she donated many a cake to the churches in Mayfield, Jermyn and Throop. She loved to do crafts and donated many to the churches throughout the years. Susanne was an avid shopper. She loved to take photographs and followed the church closings throughout the area and many a priest knew her as the "Lady with the Camera." Several of her photos were featured in "Call to Holiness" in the Catholic Light. She also had the opportunity to meet Cardinal Rigali on his visit to the area.

She was a friend to all and she never hesitated to help someone and devoted many hours helping friends by speaking to them on the phone, writing letters or sending cards to show them she was thinking of them when they needed someone the most.

Susanne is survived by a sister, Rosemarie and her husband, James, Throop; cousins, Linda Kellock, Hazle Twp.; David Kellock, Scott Twp.; Lorraine Polito, Archbald; and many cousins, relatives and friends.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held Friday at 9:30 a.m. at Blessed Sacrament Parish, St. Anthony's Church, Throop, celebrated by the Rev. Scott Sterowski, pastor. All those attending Mass, go directly to the church.

Friends may call Friday from 8 to 9 a.m. at the John F. Glinsky Funeral Home, 445 Sanderson St., Throop.
