A Love That Shined

*In every gentle whisper of the breeze,
In every star that lights the evening skies,
Her love remains, eternal and free,
A beacon shining in our hearts' deep eyes.*

*A wife so tender, a partner true,
Her laughter filled our days with grace,
A mother's warmth, so kind, so new,
Her love forever leaves its trace.*

*A grandmother's touch, so soft, so wise,
With stories woven with care and grace,
Her spirit lives beyond the skies,
A cherished soul no time can erase.*

*Though she has gone from our sight and touch,
Her love's a flame that will never fade,
In every memory, she means so much—
Forever in our hearts she's stayed.*

*Rest peacefully, dear one, so loved, so dear,
Your love remains forever near.*

Obituary

Elaine Norma Schultz passed away peacefully in Tisdale, Saskatchewan, in the early morning hours of June 26, 2025.

Elaine was born in Wadena, Saskatchewan, on July 16, 1942, to James and Nicki Hamill. She was the second oldest of eight children and spent her entire life in the Archerwill/Kelvington area.

On October 22, 1960, Elaine married the love of her life, Harold Schultz. They met in a café in Kelvington and, after a short courtship, tied the knot. Together, they raised four children: Lorelei, Dale, Cindy, and Kimberley. Initially, they lived in various locations around Kelvington, and in 1968, they moved to a farm located eight miles east of Archerwill. Farming became a way of life for Elaine and Harold, and together they ran the Lazy River Ranch until selling it in 2022. Elaine and Harold were married for 64 years.

Elaine lived for her family, including her seven grandchildren: Cameron (Angela) Schultz, Chelsea (Dean) Schultz, Amanda (Jim) Thurow, Matthew (Amy) Wilks, Christine (Wayne) DeGagne, Janelle (Yuliya) Torgerson, and Darcy (Amy) Torgerson. She was also blessed with nine great-grandchildren. Many summers were filled with the laughter of grandchildren running around the farm—and she loved every minute of it.

Elaine was predeceased by her parents, James and Nicki; her sisters, Diane Wilkinson and Donna Fehr; her brother, David Hamill; her daughters, Kimberley and Lorelei; and her stepfather, Ira Ross.

She is survived by her sisters Sherell (Arnold) Leffler and Linda (Murray) Gates; her brothers Jack (Gladys) Hamill and Bob (Brenda) Hamill; her son Dale (Nancy) Schultz; and her daughter Cindy (David) Wilks. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

The LORD is my Shepherds
I shall not want.

He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

*I will fear no evil.
for Thou art with me;*

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over
Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me

ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgement
