ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of the late Jesse B. Morrissey acknowledges, with sincere appreciation, your understanding, your prayers,
and all acts of kindness shown at this time of bereavement.

"IT'S HARD TO SAY GOODBYE"

As we sit here filled with pain and sorrow
Knowing that we won't see you tomorrow
Holding back our tears so we won't cry
Cause it's so hard to say goodbye.

As we sit here with our memories of you
Yet we can't believe that you won't speak
Today, Tomorrow or Ever

All of us have no question why ~ It's so hard to say goodbye.

As we sit here knowing that this is the last day

We're going to see you physically

But you will always be with us mentally and spiritually

All we can say is "see you when we get there"

And thank you for all the time we've shared

We have no doubt that all of us have given a segment of our heart to you:

Every tear that we have cried should let you know its so hard to say goodbye.

OBITUARY

Jesse B. Morrissey, 53, of Asbury Park, was called home to be with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on April 20, 2016. His earthly duties were accomplished. Jesse was born on August 27, 1962 in Gatesville, NC to the late James and Emma Morrissey.

Jesse relocated to Asbury Park, NJ as a young child with his family. He attended the Asbury Park Public School system. He was employed at Campbell Supply Company for many years.

Jesse loved bike riding, playing cards, and watching sports, primarily football. His favorite team was the New York Jets. He truly enjoyed spending time with family and friends, especially when he was being the jokester that he was. His love for his family was unique and special for each one separately. Jesse was also an avid fan of Run-D.M.C.

Jesse was predeceased by his parents, James and Emma Morrissey; sister, Shirley Morrissey; and all but one of his aunts and uncles.

Jesse leaves to cherish many happy memories, one son, Gary Gorski; one daughter-in-law, Michelle Gorski; four grandchildren, Abigail, Irene, Edward and Steven, all of Bradley Beach, NJ; five sisters, Susie Britt and Frances Morrissey of Asbury Park, NJ, Barbara Morrissey and Linda Lyons of Ocean, NJ, and Bernice Morrissey of Virginia; four brothers, James “Q” Morrissey and Marcus Morrissey of Asbury Park, NJ, Kevin Britt of Texas, and Michael Latimore of New York; one uncle, Curtis Britt of Maryland; one god brother and best friend, Jayquan; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
