Obituary

Deacon Thomas "Wayne" Quattlebaum affectionately known to some as "Jake" was born to the late John Levi and Norma Thomas Quattlebaum on July 7, 1958. He entered into eternal rest on October 4, 2026.

He was a lifelong resident of Wagener, SC. He was a graduate of Wagener-Salley High School class of 1976. At an early age he joined the Baughmanville Baptist Church. Wayne was an Air Force Veteran and also served his local community as a member of law enforcement with the Aiken County Sherriff's Office, Wagener Police Department and Allied Air. He was a member of Jerusalem Lodge #400 and Jerusalem #375 Order of Eastern Stars. He was also a volunteer with the Wagener Salley High School Athletic Department for 20+ years.

On December 19, 1987, Wayne was joined in Holy Matrimony to Gwendolyn Moore Quattlebaum. They spent 38 wonderful years together with a genuine love that showed until the moment he took his final breath.

He leaves to cherish his memories; his loving wife Gwen; devoted children Tyesha, Brandon, Brittney, Thomas "Bryson"; sister Mabel Smith; sister in-law Sharon Quattlebaum; brothers in-law Bernard Freeman, Elder Jerry Adams Sr., Christopher (Priscilla) Moore; grandchildren Izaiah, Skylar (Alisya), Kason, Landon, Lamond, Alaiya; great grandchildren Hermione, Amara; god children Camren, Kynslie, Ormani, Omarion, Aaden, Addyson; a special aunt Christine Morgan; uncles Willie (Louise) Green, James (Julia) Moore; aunts Frances Moore, Dorothy Ballard, Doris Quiller; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

To My Best Friend

I kept my promise to love, honor and share.
I kept my promise to you that I would always be there
Til death do we part, that is what they say.
Oh my love, why did you leave me that day?
I wasn't ready for you to say goodbye,
As I look into the heavens with tears in my eyes,
I wasn't ready for you to die.
My best friend, why did you leave me and not say goodbye?
So many questions and no answers as to why.
I would have gone with you, however God knows best
And took you home to give you rest.
I was not ready, no not just yet.
Only one regret, I didn't get to tell you one last time,
I love you and forever you will be mine.
My best friend you must know and never forget,
I will see you again when God calls my name and says,
"It's time to go home and be with your best friend again."

Papa

I just wish that you were still here. I'm just texting your phone so I can feel like you are still here with me. Papa you did a lot of things for us. We would call you to pick us up late at night and you didn't have a problem coming. I know that you are in a better place but we really miss you. We love you Papa and we will meet again. Love you Papa

If Tears Could Build A Stairway

If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
We could walk right up to Heaven
And bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
But we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store.
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay.

-Your children
Tyesha, Brandon, Brittney, Bryson
