Family and Friends

If ever there is tomorrow when we're not together...there is something you must always remember. You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think. But the most important thing is, even if we're apart...I'll always be with you. - A.A. Milne

OBITUARY

After faithfully and bravely enduring a long illness, Carolyn Holland Wainwright, age 72, entered eternal rest on Tuesday, February 24, 2026.

Carolyn was born on June 28, 1953, to the late Walter H. Holland, Sr. and Ola Witcher Holland. Carolyn was a faithful member of Morningside Missionary Baptist Church in Rocky Mount, Virginia where she served on the Usher Board and was a choir member.

Carolyn attended Lee M. Wade School in Rocky Mount. Early in her career, she was employed at M&W Manufacturers and later became a Certified Nursing Assistant where she diligently served elderly and disabled patients for over twenty years until her illness. Carolyn had many hobbies which included playing cards, games, Bingo, and cooking. She loved spending time with her family and friends.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her father, Walter H. Holland, Sr.; a sister, Phyllis V. Witcher; and a daughter-in-law, Lakeisha Nichole Young. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Willie Wainwright; her mother, Ola Witcher Holland; three (3) sons: Davy Lamonte Young, Demond Lashay Young and James (J.C.) Young (Wendy); brothers: Walter H. Holland, Jr. (Patricia) and Leon Holland (Taffie); sisters: Deborah Wells (Freddy), Cassandra Holland, and Sonja Elkins. She also leaves to cherish her memory seven grandchildren: Daiyanna, Davy Jr. (LJ), Delaney, Breana, Jeremiah, A'Raja, and Jasmine; two great-grandchildren: Karman and Brayden; and a host of nieces, nephews, special friends, relatives, and godchildren.
