

In Loving Memory

Psalm 23

1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Beth Joan Walker was the third of five children born to Henry and Anna (Fosheim) Walker on August 20, 1932, at Sansarc, South Dakota. She began her education at Sansarc's one-room schoolhouse. The family moved to Bryant in 1941, where Beth finished her education, graduating in 1950 from Bryant High School. She graduated from Huron College with her teacher's degree.

In 1952, Beth was united in marriage to Tellef Carter. They moved to Everett, Washington and had five children before moving back to South Dakota in 1975.

Beth worked in various fields before retiring, first as a teacher in Midland and Lake Preston, then as an owner of a small café. She served as a nurse's aide at Parkview Care Center in Bryant, then in 1979 went back to school, earned a degree and worked as a dental lab technician.

Beth loved music and was a pianist and sang in the church choir. She loved raising flowers and growing and canning vegetables from her garden. Perhaps her greatest talent was as a seamstress. She sewed clothing for her family and costumes for Halloween and the country's Bicentennial. Once her children were raised, Beth used her sewing talent to create beautifully pieced quilts that are now treasures for her children and grandchildren.

Beth joins in Heaven her parents; one infant sister, Mary Anna; one sister, Margaret and brother-in-law, Pete; one brother, Paul; one brother-in-law, Floyd; three grandsons, Jared, Ryan and Jonathon and their grandfather, Tellef Carter.

Beth passed away on Thursday, April 23, 2026, at the Good Samaritan Center in De Smet, South Dakota, at the age of 93 years, 8 months and 3 days.
