

TO MY PRECIOUS CHILDREN

Nichole, Sebrina, Christopher, and Justin

If you are reading these words, know that my love for you did not end when Heaven called my name. A mother's love does not stop at the cemetery gate. It stretches beyond time, beyond tears, and even beyond death itself.

Nichole, thank you for your strength, your compassion, and the countless ways you loved me. Never doubt that I saw your sacrifices and cherished every moment we shared.

Sebrina, your smile has always brought warmth to my heart. Continue to love fearlessly, serve faithfully, and let your light shine wherever God leads you.

Christopher, I have always been proud of the man you became. Walk with integrity, protect your family, and never forget the values I worked so hard to place within your heart.

Justin, remember that you have always been one of my greatest joys. Hold your head high, trust God with your future, and know that you carry a part of me with you every single day.

To all four of you, remember this: love one another. Stand together through every season. Celebrate each other's victories, carry each other's burdens, and never allow anything to divide the family God gave you. My greatest prayer has always been that you would remain united—not only by blood, but by love.

Do not spend all of your days looking for me in photographs or wishing for one more conversation. Instead, find me in the values I instilled, the memories we created, the traditions we shared, and the faith I tried to live before you. When you choose kindness over bitterness, forgiveness over anger, faith over fear, and love over pride, a part of me is still living through you.

I have simply gone where every believer longs to be—in the loving presence of our Savior. Though your hearts may ache today, Heaven has welcomed me with perfect peace. One day, when God says the time is right, we will see each other again where there will be no sickness, no sorrow, no tears, and no goodbyes.

Until then, keep living. Keep loving. Keep believing. Laugh often, hug one another a little longer, tell each other "I love you" without hesitation, and never stop trusting God.

Thank you for giving me the privilege of being your mother. Of all the titles I carried in this life, "Mom" was the one I treasured most.

Always remember...

I may be absent from your sight, but will never be absent from your hearts.

*With everlasting love,
Mom*

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The family of Mariena Leticia Smith sincerely thanks each of you for your prayers, love, support, and every act of kindness shown during our time of bereavement.

Your comforting words, thoughtful gestures, and expressions of sympathy have strengthened our hearts and reminded us of God's unfailing love. We are deeply grateful for your compassion and for celebrating Mariena's beautiful life with us.

May God richly bless each of you for the love you have shared.

~ The Smith Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

Mariena Leticia Smith

“Her love was a gift, her laughter a melody, and her legacy will forever bloom in our hearts.”

Mariena Leticia Smith, affectionately known as “Marsha,” “Cuz,” “Rena Bena,” “Sister,” and “Mama Rock,” was born on July 31, 1966, in Tallahassee, Florida, to Lerinzo and Frances Smith, and was lovingly raised in Crawfordville (Wakulla County), Florida. She lived a life rooted in love, compassion, and joy, touching countless lives with her generous heart and vibrant spirit. Her infectious laughter, quick wit, and welcoming nature made everyone feel like family, and her presence was a blessing wherever she went.

Mariena received her education in the Wakulla County Public School System, where she developed the caring spirit and strong values that guided her throughout life. She faithfully served as a Home Health Aide with Irene’s Loving Care Service, where caring for others was more than a profession—it was her calling. She offered comfort, dignity, and kindness to every life she encountered, leaving a lasting impression on the families she served.

She found joy in life’s simple blessings. Whether tending her garden, preparing her famous potato salad and fried chicken, fishing with loved ones, or gathering around a card table filled with laughter, Mariena treasured every opportunity to spend time with family and friends. She understood that life’s richest moments were those shared with the people she loved.

On June 23, 2026, Mariena peacefully answered the Master’s call and entered into eternal rest. Though our hearts are heavy, we find comfort in the promise of Psalm 23: “The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want... He restoreth my soul.” We rejoice knowing she now rests beside still waters, embraced by the peace of her Heavenly Father.

Family was the heart of Mariena’s life. Left to cherish her precious memories are her beloved daughters, Nichole (Travis) Robinson and Sebrina (Harvey) Brown; her devoted sons, Christopher (Holly) Randolph and Justin Randolph; her cherished grandchildren, Justin Randolph Jr., Christopher Randolph Jr., Rihanna Randolph, Shanya Donaldson, Adrian Smith, Adrianna Smith, Donelle Gay Jr., Donnashia Gay, and Hayven Greene; her loving parents, Frances and Lerinzo Smith; her sisters, Valery (Robert) Meeks and Sharon Arnett; her brother, Lomax (Glynis) Smith; god sister, Kristell Robinson; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her brother: Lasarus Smith; her grandparents: Willie Mae Frank, Luke (Effie) Smith, and John (Alberta) Tucker; her aunts: Cora Mae Gavin, Allee Hughes, Lillian Scott, Lula Mae (Sam) Taylor, Clara (William) Paytee, Maggie Tucker, and Corine Glenn; and her uncles: Clarence Tucker, Earnest Tucker, Lewis Anderson, and Melvin (Ruby) Smith.

Mariena’s life was a beautiful reflection of faith, kindness, and unconditional love. Though she is no longer with us in body, the seeds of compassion she planted will continue to flourish in the lives she touched. As God’s Word reminds us, “Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”

“Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.”
—Psalm 23:6
