Florence Ella Partridge

February 26, 1939 - March 12, 2021

Florence Ella Partridge was born February 26, 1939 at St. Anthony's general hospital. She grew up in Big Eddy and was raised by extended family. When she was sixteen she worked at the Airport Hospital then met her husband Ahab Partridge and was married on January 24, 1957. Together they had six children: Baby Partridge (their first whom sadly passed by miscarriage), Colin Partridge, Barbara Partridge, Richard Partridge, Joycelyn Partridge and Derek Partridge and adopted siblings Nelson Lathlin, Shirley Cook and Barbara Partridge. She also fostered and helped to raise Susan Cook and Vernon Cook. The family resided in Big Eddy for years until relocating to Carrot River. Her husband Ahab was a trapper, hunter, fisherman and enjoyed sports; canoeing, soccer and hockey. Mom loved her children, living the traditional camping life and also stayed home to take care of the children while dad provided for the family.

She later worked at the Wescana Inn for years and her last job was with Rod McGillivray Care home where she retired in 1996. She worked hard to help provide for her family as a single parent and grandparent.

Our mother's faith in God was strong and this has helped her to persevere through the hard times and always called upon Him. Her faith built a strong foundation which has guided her through her life. She was involved in the Anglican Church Women's group for years and volunteered for the Women's Church Vestry and Little Helpers. She attended church regularly and volunteered her time with many church community events. She also enjoyed cooking, sewing, watching her wrestling, and loved her grandchildren and spending time with each one. She also had helped to raise many of them. She had a kind heart and showed this by always helping others through her kindness, acceptance and love.

She is survived by her children Richard Partridge (Clare), Shirley Cook (Maryann), Joycelyn Partridge, Derek (Brittney) Partridge, Nelson Lathlin and Barbara (Oliver) Partridge; her grandchildren; Colin Jr.(Anita), Angie Cook,

She was predeceased by Ahab Partridge her husband, daughter Barbara Partridge and son Colin Partridge Sr., parents; Isiah Constant and Clara Thomas and many family members on her late husbands side.
