

Brother, you are no longer here, I'm shedding so many tears,
I keep thinking this is a dream as this is all so real.
I'll miss you so much and your long, sometimes funny, talks,
But keeping those memories will help me so much.
(this part is hard for me brother, losing you)
I love you so much, and I know you love me too.
I will miss your jokes that made me laugh,
I will miss your calls to brighten my day.
Brother, watch over me in every way ... my heart hurts.
Brother, I'm trying to be strong, it's so hard for me,
Knowing that you are gone.
Brother and sister, we will always be,
I will no longer hear you say "Sister"
as that's what you called me.

Your Loving Sister, Davida —

Journey of Life

JOHN ROBERT HARRINGTON JR., son of the late Donnell Williams and John Robert Harrington Sr., was born on November 26, 1968 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on September 24, 2022 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After high school, John joined the United States Marine Corps. He later served in the United States Army Reserves and The United States Air Force Reserves where he received several decorations, awards and Ribbon. Lastly, John served 25 years of employment at the Maryland House of Corrections until he retired.

John met the love of his life, Shellish Johnson, in May of 1993, and they have been inseparable ever since. They shared four kids (three preceded him in death: Joshua, Alicia, and Avery) and their rainbow child, Dominic "Buddy". Throughout their 31 years, they created a life that they loved and adored.

John leaves to mourn: his sister, Davida (his brother, David and sister, Angela both preceded him in death); mother-in-law and father-in-law, Maria and Lewis Johnson; and a host of nieces and nephews, and many other relatives and friends.

He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

*We little knew the day that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly, in death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't have to go alone,
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And although we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link us again.*

*Love you immensely,
Your Loving Wife Shelly and Your Son Dominic*
