

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long, and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared, miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do, miss me-but let me go.*

Kasaan you were an incredible gentleman who helped to pave the way for the family, and for all those you met. For that, we thank you. Thank you for loving and supporting us in all life endeavors, and decisions. Words cannot describe the pain of not having you in our view. The loss is deep, but we choose to rejoice for the life of leadership, dignity, and meekness you led. There is no doubt your spirit lives within us! From the bottom of our hearts, we love and miss you.

Immense Love, Your Family

Life Reflections

Kasaan Allah Bragg peacefully transitioned from earth to rest on Sunday March 17, 2019. Kasaan was born on December 25, 1970 to Denise Bragg-Harroll and the late Wilbert Drake in Newark, N.J.

Kasaan graduated from Clifford J. Scott High School in East Orange, N.J and continued his education at Norfolk State University.

Kasaan was a good person, he enjoyed helping people, was an amazing listener, and could bring laughter to a room full of people. Family was very important to him, as he was an amazing and devoted father to his beautiful daughter Asia.

He also worked at Universal Rehabilitation Center as a Residential Specialist and briefly as a correction officer at Northern State Prison. He decided to go in a different direction and pursue a career at MTA where he was in training to become a Mechanical Train Engineer.

Kasaan is preceded in death by his father Wilbert Drake; grandmother Bernice Bragg; grandfather John Bragg II; uncle Eric Bragg and his loving niece Iyanna Bragg.

He leaves to celebrate his life, love and legacy his loving Mother, Denise Bragg-Harroll; devoted Step-Father, James Harroll; loving Daughter, Asia Bragg; loving Sister, Shikina Bragg-Horton (Bryant); devoted Uncles John Bragg III (Margaret), Jerome Pruett (Rosalind) Earle Smith II (Tara), Jaime Bragg; loving nieces Imani Woodward (De'Arius) and Kiara Bragg.
