Obituary

Dorothy Lee (O'Field) Simpson was born on April 5, 1937, the only child to the late Fletcher O'Field and Ora Dee (Nelson) O'Field-Smith in Toomsuba, Mississippi.

Since the age of 8 she wanted to be a nurse. She wrote an essay on wanting to be a nurse when she grew up and was asked to read her essay on a Birmingham radio station. During her elementary and up through high school, she enjoyed and participated in Ballet, Tap and Modern dance. As a student at Parker High School, she was Drum Majorette and very talented with the Baton. She began her first means of employment working in a Tea Room where she accepted a position typing the menus because she knew how to type and this was better than working in the kitchen.

Dorothy attended St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing in Clarksburg, West Virginia and graduated in 1960. She was asked to begin her Nursing vocation at Dartmouth but chose Children's Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio to be close to her husband, who was stationed in Fort Campbell, KY.

She and Joe had four surviving children (twin daughters died of premature births). With their growing family, they purchased a house in Mt. Healthy, Ohio. Approximately 8 years later, Dorothy began working at The Christ Hospital first, as a Unit Nurse then promoted to Head Nurse and 33 years later retired as the Director of Nursing.

During this time, she also wrote and published several articles in various nursing magazines.

Dorothy Lee Simpson was a loving daughter, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and admired by many. She loved a good joke and continued to dance with the Golden Tappers during her retirement.

Her memory will be cherished by her daughters and sons, Jerita Simpson, Michelle (Mark) Clayton, Jeff Simpson and Mike (Joni) Simpson. Grand Children, RaSchell (Brian) Simpson-Jackson and Phoebe (Tim) Davis, Claire Simpson and Robert Simpson; and Great-Grand Children, Anastasia (Kalen) Hopkins-Koenig, Nyla Simpson and Leo Simpson and a host of other relatives and friends who consider themselves Blessed to have known Dorothy Lee (O'Field) Simpson.

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be an affliction, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of men they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.

Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his elect, and he watches over his holy ones.
