Reflections of Life

Terrance "Terry" Lamar Bronson was the son of Cheryl and Joe Bronson. Born in Kansas City, Mo, he spent time living in Maryland, California and Arizona. He was a licensed barber and at an early age he expressed an interest in drawing. His creative talents led to him becoming proficient in free style drawings of life. Terry also painted with various types of paint and acrylics. It manifested into free-style drawings of life and paintings that range from pop art to futuristic. His other passion cars, led to him opening an auto detailing business. A doting uncle and treasured friend, he enjoyed sharing his passions with those around him.

He is survived by his mother Cheryl Bronson; sisters Nikisha Preston and Tjyiana Butler; niece Ramia Preston, and nephews Jaden Croft and Elijah Butler. No biological children; Jamaurie Cubie whom he treated like a son. His Grandmother Janette Smith, of Kansas City, MO; a host of aunts, cousins, dearest friends and fiancé Aliya Bowie of Maryland. His father Joe Bronson preceded him in death.

Until We Meet Again

We think about you
We talk about you still.
You have never been forgotten
And you never will.
We hold you close within our hearts
And there you will remain.
To walk and guide us through our lives,
Until we meet again.
