

DEATH IS NOTHING AT ALL

Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was.

I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.

Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, and pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner. All is well.

Obituary

Louise Cook Crudup, 88, of Neptune, NJ passed away on Friday, August 12, 2016, at Jersey Shore University Medical Center, Neptune, New Jersey. She was born on October 27, 1927 in North Carolina to Norman and Pattie Cook.

At the age of 16, Louise moved from her parents' home in the Neptune area to New York where she spent the majority of her adult years. While living throughout New York, she worked in many industries. One of the noted positions she held was as a hand and clothing model. She was also an assistant in a home for girls, and a foster mother to hundreds of children. These occupations enabled her to have a positive impact on the lives of those in her care. She was predeceased by her son, Larry Cook; father, Norman Cook; mother, Pattie Mangum Cook; brothers, Adeo and Stanley Cook; four sisters, Katherine Cook, Betty Cook, Marjorie Foy, and Laura Cook.

She leaves to celebrate her life her brother, Chester Cook of Neptune, NJ; grandson, Larry Brockman of Mt. Vernon, NY; the many children that she loved and cared for, and many nieces, nephews and friends.
