He kept a whole scrapbook, full of the articles he was featured in.

Harvey was also a revered bass player. He played in various local bands. His last, and most successful band he played with was named “To Be Continued”. In 1975, they were featured on the “Collage 75” compilation album released by Brookdale Community College in Lincroft, NJ.

Harvey received Jesus Christ as his Savior in the mid to late 90’s and then joined Faith Fellowship Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Overseer Porter Brown.
