A HEART OF GOLD

*A heart of gold stopped beating,
Two shiny eyes at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

*God knows you had to leave us,
But you didn't go away alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*To some you'll be forgotten,
And to others just a part of the past;
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory will always last.*

Obituary

On Monday, November 28, 2022, Bre'Ayn Claudie Neal, son of Sabrina Neal, Phillip Carr, and step-pops Orlando Watson, departed this life. He was born in Salisbury, Maryland, on July 23, 1996. Bre'Ayn was known as "Bossman" by most of his family and friends.

Bossman graduated from Wicomico High School with the Class of 2014. While at Wi Hi he participated in football, basketball, and wrestling. The love of sports allowed him to continue his love to those younger than him. Bossman worked for UPS as a truck driver and worked at BEACON in construction.

Bre'Ayn's passion for football is what inspired him to become a youth coach. He, like his uncle Shawn Lightfoot, enjoyed assisting others. Following in his grandfather's footsteps, he quickly became an active and instrumental member of his community. "Be pissed off for greatness," was one of his favorite quotes.

Bre'Ayn is remembered fondly by: his daughter, Harlem (Boogie) Neal; his mother, Sabrina Neal; his father, Phillip Carr; his "step-pops," Orlando Watson; grandmother, Lenora Morris Dashiell; two sisters, Bre'Ayna Jones and Amirah Neal-Watson; brother, Nasir Neal-Watson; extended siblings in New York; one uncle, Shawn Lightfoot (Shametress); two aunts, Brante Dashiell and Stacey Matthews (godmother of Conyers, Georgia); one niece, Sarai Parker; two nephews, Braelon Jones and Kendall Parker; his girlfriend, Nasya Jones; and a host of great-uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives, and close friends.

Bre'Ayn was preceded in death by his grandfather, James E. Dashiell, Jr; grandmother, JoAnn Neal; great-grandmother, Laura Francis Dashiell Goslee; and niece, Serenity Jones.

Bre'Ayn was loved by his family and community more than he ever understood or could imagine. His goal was to become the richest man ever, not rich by wealth, but rich by love. He had a beautiful smile that would light up an entire room, and he left an impact on everyone he encountered. Rest easy, your wings are ready, but our hearts are not.
