

Miss Me, but Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go*

*For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.*

Appreciation

The family of the Brooke Allison would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy, words of comfort, and prayers during our time of bereavement. May God Bless You!

Brooke Allison, 47 of Salisbury, departed this life Monday, January 29, 2024, in Ellicott City, Maryland. He was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, June 19, 1976, to the late Warren and Franzella Allison.

Brooke grew up in New Jersey as a youngster. He attended the public-school systems of Pennsauken, New Jersey and Wicomico County, Maryland. Brooke was a member for many years of Trinity Tabernacle Church. Rev Appleby was very instrumental in Brooke overcoming many of life's obstacles. Their special bond played a crucial role in his challenges in life. Prior to his health issues, he worked as a roofing contractor until his accident. During most of his life in Maryland, Brooke found comfort in sharing his life with his Aunt Joyce, whom he viewed as his second mother.

Brooke leaves to cherish fond memories with a special aunt, Joyce Way of Salisbury, also, Dorothy Fall of Salisbury, Florence Wood of Sandy Springs, MD; an uncle, Clayton Wood (Betty) of Philadelphia; numerous cousins: Terry Wood (Debra) of North Carolina, Myron Way, Derrick Gerald, and Jeffrey Way all of Salisbury; Jill Way of Hanover, MD, Grace Berry (Tony) of Norriton, Pennsylvania, and a multiple generation of other cousins, relatives, and friends. Brooke also leaves a special friend, Erica Franklin of Ellicott City.

In addition to his parents, Brooke was preceded in death by an uncle, Forrest Wood, and a cousin, Levin J Way, Jr.
