A LOVING TRIBUTE TO KELVIN

KELVIN COOPER was born to the late Marcella Bond and Malvin Cooper on January 9, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 30, 2023.

Kelvin began his formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Spending time with his South Baltimore family is something that he always enjoyed.

He held great positions at Mercury Plastic and H&S Bakery, where Kelvin was often given praises from all his employers.

On July 24, 2010, Kelvin and Annette Cooper became a union of one for 13 strong loving years. He was an avid sports fan. He loved the Dallas Cowboys. Kelvin also enjoyed cooking, listening to music and spending time with his grandchildren.

Kelvin made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his mother Marcella Bond, father Malvin Cooper, granddaughter Zabria, Aunt Mona and Uncle Mike. Kelvin leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Annette Cooper; daughter, Sheakia Coleman; two sisters, Nakia and Shantel; two grandchildren, Jordan and Zion; a great-grandchild, Kaylani; and a host of other family and friends.

My Dad

*A fathers touch, a Daddy's kiss,
A grieving Daughter, the Dad I will always miss.
An empty house, an empty chair, a fathers love, no longer there.
A broken heart, tear filled eye, another soul in the sky.
The times we shared, the laughs we had,
Things I miss when I think of MY DAD.*

*Your Daughter,
Sheakia*

A Letter to My Husband

Dear Kelvin,

I am writing this letter to you in Heaven up above to tell you how much I miss you with all my heart and love. We've shared 13 years of marriage; I do not know why you had to go. It just isn't fair. I'm left here with this sorrow, sometimes too much to despair ... It is so hard not to touch you, and hard not to see you ... I wish so much to hear your voice JUST ONE MORE TIME ... Kelvin, I hear you whisper inside my thoughts, I feel you all around me. I know that you live on through those lives that you have touched. Kelvin thank you for your love that helps me through each day and thank you for your memories that will never fade away.

You are the man I loved, and I am proud to be your wife and everyday in some small way I celebrate your life. And though it's sad to think about the way things were before. When we are re-united it will be forever more ... Kelvin, I know someday I'll see you again. In my heart I'll continue to hold you close and keep you safe until then. Keep sending me signs. You will always be remembered and always loved by your wife and loved ones you watch over from Heaven Up Above.

*Until we meet again!!
Love Unconditionally,
Your Wife Annette*

*We'll always remember
That special smile,
That caring heart,
That warm embrace
You always gave us.
You being there
For Grandma and us.
Through good and bad times,
No matter what.
We'll always remember
You Grampa because
There'll never be another one
To replace you in our hearts.
And the love we will always have for you –
You will forever live
in our hearts.*

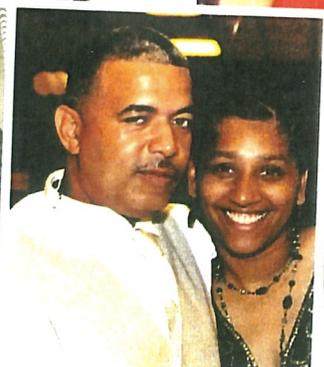

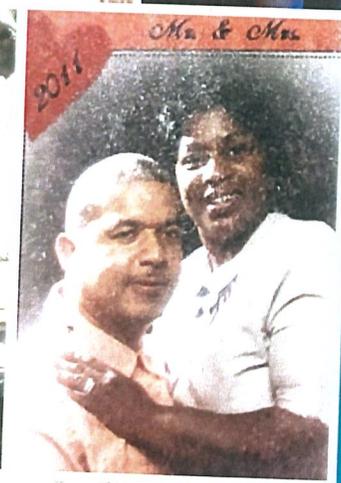

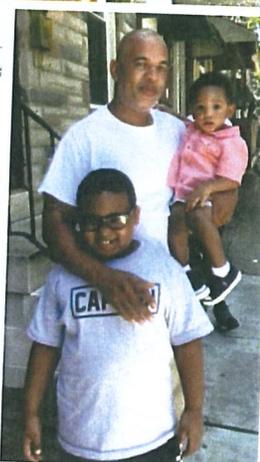

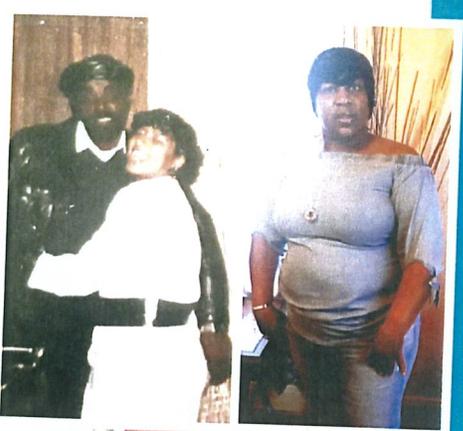

*Love Unconditionally,
Jordan, Zion and Kaylani*

My Dear Brother

*Now that you are gone,
you're no longer here to share,
The bond we had together,
a bond of love and care.
Yet, somehow something tells me,
You are watching over me,
you finally are free.
I miss you so very much
and my tears I cannot hide.
Yet, within my heart I feel,
you are always by my side.*

*Your Loving Sisters,
Tweety & Mook*

A Message to My Wife

*Once in a lifetime
If you are lucky,
You meet someone whose presence
Ignites a burning fire within you.
Someone whose warm smile
And sensitive nature
Captures your heart.
And you know in an instant
That the two of you were Meant to be together.
That's exactly how I felt about you.
You were my "once in a lifetime."
And even though I may not have Shown it as often as I
Should have, I knew how blessed
I was to have you.
You were everything to me.
You were truly my
"Once in a lifetime."*
