

Remember Me

*Remember me with smiles, not tears,
For all the joy
throughout the years.
Recall the times, the
laughs, the love,
I now watch over you
from above.
My time with you was
but a part,
Of the memories held
within your heart.
A piece of me remains
with you,
In everything you say
and do.*

Obituary

*"Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."
Matthew 11:28*

Michael Herbert Colter passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of family, resilience, and love.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his father, Billy Herbert and Hattie Mae Weir Moore Colter; his beloved wife, Frances Colter; his stepfather, Wesley Moore. He is also preceded by his brothers, William Lee Griffin and Selma "Bo" Colter.

Michael attended Philadelphia High School, where he enjoyed spending time with friends and building lasting connections. Throughout his life, he treasured time spent with those closest to him, especially his special nieces, Tehitia Davis, Renada Lewis, Emily Lewis, Ebony Wallace, Terrica Moore, Margie Davis-Bell, Vetty Davis Gates and Sylvia Pou; his special nephew, Markeous Davis; and his special friends, Joe Davis and Greg Jackson.

He leaves to cherish his memory his son, Michael Ray Clemons; his sisters, Billie Jean (Willie) Wallace of Boligee, Alabama, and Flossie (Greg) Lewis of Philadelphia, Mississippi. He is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Michael will be remembered as someone who embraced life with enthusiasm and left lasting memories behind. His presence and spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Michael,

*You lived your life with spirit and grace,
With a heart that always knew its place*

Among the ones you loved so dear,

The family and friends who held you near.

You shared your laughter, time, and light,

And left us memories warm and bright.

Though we must say goodbye today,

Your love will never fade away.

In every story, every tear,

In every smile when you feel near

You'll live on in the hearts you've touched,

And in the love that meant so much.

Rest now in peace, your journey done,

Until we meet when life is won.

Forever loved, forever missed,

Forever held in God's safe midst.

*Love,
Your Family*
