

Tracie Jo Mahealani Osborne, born on July 27, 1954, in Honolulu, Hawaii, passed away peacefully on January 25, 2025, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was a loving wife, mother, sister, and friend, cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Growing up in a military family, Tracie lived in different areas of the country before returning to Oklahoma to be near her family.

Tracie was an avid rockhound, collecting beautiful stones from various corners of the globe. Her passion for adventure was also evident in her love for camping and visiting garage sales, where she found treasures that would tell a story. She had a unique ability to connect with nature and a kind heart that extended to her beloved dogs, who were an integral part of her family. Tracie's family was her greatest joy, and her devotion was evident to everyone around her.

She is survived by her beloved husband, Rex Osborne; her daughters, Jennifer Mason, Kimberly Robbins, and Amy Robbins; 8 grandchildren, 8 great-grandchildren and her brothers, Mike Claytor and wife Lisa, Lee Claytor, and David Claytor and wife Jamie, as well as nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Denver Claytor and Daylene Claytor, as well as her brother, JD Claytor.

Friends and family are invited to come together to honor the remarkable life of Tracie Jo Osborne, reflecting on the joy she brought to their lives and the cherished memories they hold dear.

Tracie will be profoundly missed, but her spirit will forever

In Loving Memory Of Tracie Jo Osborne

July 27, 1954

January 25, 2025

If you remember anything of me, after I leave this world, remember that I loved even when it was foolish. That I cared even when it was unwanted.

*When my body is gone,
remember my heart.*
