

The Final Flight

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following in the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Ernest J. Taylor, 59, of Asbury Park, NJ passed away at St Francis Hospital in Wilmington, DE on August 11, 2022. He was born in Neptune, NJ on May 27, 1963 to Vester and Louise Taylor.

Ernest worked in the construction industry and adored his family. Everyone knew him by “E.T.”. He especially enjoyed listening to music, roller skating and running track. However, his greatest pastime was being a jokester. Ernest could make anyone laugh!

He is predeceased by his parents, Vester and Louise Taylor, grandmother, Mary Pollard, sister, Jeneather Taylor, and nephew, Shamar Taylor.

Ernest is survived by his daughter, Donna Smith of Asbury Park, NJ, brother, Johnnie Taylor, four sisters, Odester Taylor, Arnita Taylor, Ella Mae Taylor, and Denise Taylor, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.
