WORDS OF GRATITUDE

The family greatly acknowledges the many kind and beautiful expressions of love and sympathy shown during our delicate hour of bereavement.

BURIAL

MT. MORIAH
10507 HOLMES RD. KANSS
CITY, MO 64131

"Remember the life lessons, the memories, and the love I shared with each of you. I know that it will carry you through.

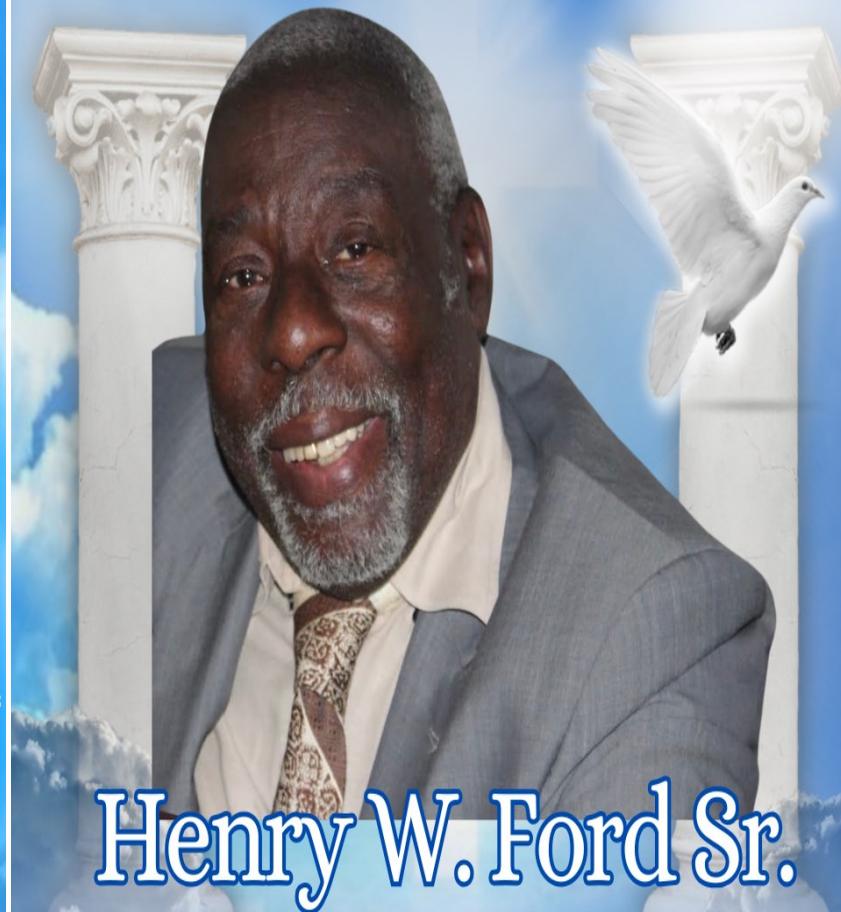

Throughout this journey, I explored, I laughed, I adventured, I cried, I loved, I endured, I lived. You will also explore, laugh, take adventures, cry, love, and endure. Just live.

I embarked on the most imperfect, but perfect life for me, and God always saw me through. In every part of my life, God always spoke to me and said, "I live in you."

While I found Him in my own way, I'm grateful to say that one day, you too will walk through Heavens gates.

My silent tears and silent prayers became more precious near the end. I know, because of someone special, we will meet again."

Life Reflections

Henry was born on August 10, 1946, in Oakland, California, to Sterling Ford and Alberta Ford McGee.

He was educated at Carroll High School. Over the years, Henry held several jobs, with his greatest accomplishment being his 38-year career at Ford Motor Company.

Henry enjoyed fishing and living his best, sometimes extravagant, life. He also loved to cook and barbeque. Henry departed this life on November 4, 2024.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Sterling (date of passing unknown) and Alberta (d. 1964), as well as his siblings, Bill (date of passing unknown), Annie (d. 2019), Estelle (d. 2021), Mary (d. 2006), and Sunny (d. 2018).

Henry leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Gwendolyn; his children, Debara (Londell), Barbara, Derrick (Meisha), LaDawn (Sherry), Henry "J.R." Jr., Brittany (James), and Breora; 13 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and a host of nephews, nieces, and his best friends, Alex and Allen.
