Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant
You loved every soul the Lord placed in your care, Your heart was so wide there was always room there.
No stranger stayed stranger once you drew them near, Your kindness brought comfort, your presence brought cheer.
You gave what you had, even more than your share, If someone was hurting, you were always there.
You carried their burdens with patience and grace, And offered them hope in life's difficult place.
Though trials were many and days were not fair, You carried your pain with remarkable care.
You poured out your love though your own cup was bare,
Still lifting up others in kindness and prayer.
In quiet rooms, you laid every burden down in prayer,
Speaking to God with a faith strong and rare.
Now the Father and the Son have welcomed you home, Where pain has no place and your spirit can roam.
Where prayers turn to praise and all tears are undone, In the warmth of God's glory and love of the Son.
Congratulations, Mom, your race has been won.
Our Queen, take your rest in the arms of the Son.
And heaven now whispers what faithful hearts long to hear:
"Well done, good and faithful servant.. well done."

-Written in loving honor of Mom

LOVING TRIBUTE

Mom I love you and miss you and wish you could stay with us just one more day,

To honor you, cherish you , hug you, kiss you, then

    bless you and send you on your way

Although I never got to tell you physically goodbye

    I told you , I love you mommy

Its time to let go in order for you to fly high.

    You suffered in agony every single day

Not once did I ever see you cry, break down, complain

    or ask why

I called you to tell you I love you and remind you

    you're my world, my life source my peace

    You replied remember me as I was ...

I sat in silence where you took your last breath

Just to feel you and hold what you left behind

    A honorable legacy sketched in my mind

    Boy how I wish I could reverse time

But since I can't we will burry you deep in our hearts

    And promise to finish all your starts.

    Rest in paradise

    You're suffering is no more

    When we miss you we will look to the stars

    You're beautiful and angelic and super strong

I cherish you like the greatest melody that you are!

OBITUARY

Mallorie Ann Jackson (Childers), 61, of Columbus, Ohio, passed away peacefully at home on February 28, 2026, and was declared deceased at 12:18 a.m. She passed in the comfort of her home, just as she would have wanted.

Born September 13, 1964, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Mallorie spent parts of her childhood in San Diego, California; Lawrenceburg, Indiana; and Columbus, Ohio, where she attended Eastmoor Academy High School and later made her home while raising her family.

She was the beloved daughter of Juanita Childers and Eugene Brightwell, both of whom preceded her in death. She married Rudolph Jackson at the age of 21. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Rudolph Jackson, and her brother, Robert Ballard. Mallorie also shared a meaningful relationship with the late Russell Matherson, the father of her two youngest children.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children Jereatha Jackson, Serrina Jackson, Jarvis Jackson, Tyresha Colvin (Jacqueline), Dequan Jackson-Matherson, and DeAsia Jackson (Abdul); her cherished grandchildren Isaiah, Niyala, and Hezekiah Johnson; Taylor and Jeremiah Wilson; Jariyah Heriot; and Mario Berry; her brother Ronnie Branham; a host of women who were like sisters to her; and a host of stepchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends who will forever cherish her memory.

Mallorie was known for her loving and generous spirit and for never meeting a stranger. She found joy in caring for others and had a deep love for baking, crocheting, and the little touches of beauty in everyday life, especially purses and nail polish. She also had a strong interest in family genealogy and took pride in learning about her family's roots and sharing those stories with others. Above all, she cherished family togetherness and valued the moments when everyone could gather, laugh, and simply be present with one another.

Throughout her life, she worked in food service management, factory positions, and as an STNA, where she provided compassionate care to the elderly and vulnerable. In every role, she demonstrated a strong work ethic and a heart for serving others while providing for her family.

Mallorie's life was defined by her love for family, her generosity toward others, and the care she extended to everyone she encountered.

Her earthly journey is complete, and we take comfort believing she was lovingly welcomed home by those who went before her.
